LECTURER IN COUNSELLING

(12month contractual position)

Applications are invited for a teaching term appointment at the rank of lecturer at the Student Wellness and Counselling Centre, Memorial University, St. John’s, Newfoundland.

Qualifications: A doctorate in Counselling or Clinical Psychology or from another appropriate doctorate program from a recognized university is required. Registration or registration pending with the Newfoundland and Labrador Psychology Board or another appropriate registration body in Newfoundland is required.

Memorial’s Student Wellness and Counselling Centre (SWCC) comprises counselling, student health, and wellness professionals. The Centre is committed to the Healthy Campus movement and advancing campus-wide wellness.

We are seeking a professional whose duties will include group and individual counselling or psychotherapy/therapy across a broad spectrum of student concerns within the context of our stepped care model, and who has experience in broad areas of mental health and wellness. The ideal candidate would possess expertise in one or more of the following areas: academic counselling, career counselling, LGBTQ support, internationalization and aboriginal practices and provision of outreach services. Finally, the candidate must have a commitment to interprofessional practice collaboration. No obligation for research or service activities related to research.

Salary is based on qualifications and experience in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Memorial University of Newfoundland and Memorial University of Newfoundland Faculty Association.

The appointment is effective March 4, 2019, subject to budgetary approval.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and the names of three references to: Kelly Neville
