ASSOCIATE DEAN, UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS
FACULTY OF EDUCATION
INTERNAL SEARCH

Memorial University’s Faculty of Education is seeking an Associate Dean of Undergraduate Programs. This competition is an internal one open to persons on three year terms, tenure track, and tenured faculty members. The Associate Dean will play a leadership role in advancing teacher education at Memorial University, ensuring that our programs continue to meet the changing needs of schools, post-secondary institutions and wider communities. The successful applicant will possess excellent organizational and communication skills, be innovative and energetic, and foster a creative, inclusive and productive organizational environment. As a member of the Faculty’s leadership team, the Associate Dean will share responsibility for working with faculty, staff and students on the delivery of current programs and the development of new and innovative initiatives that will contribute to the growth of the Faculty, Memorial University and the province at large. The Associate Dean will support teaching and learning excellence at all levels and will nurture an environment conducive to faculty and student research and community engagement.

The Associate Dean will work with full-time, contractual and sessional faculty members, staff and students to sustain a collegial environment that values divergent perspectives and practices. The successful candidate will also liaise and work with other University faculties and administrators to ensure that the Faculty of Education’s strategic priorities are promoted within the greater University community and are aligned with the University’s strategic plans and the Comprehensive Framework for Teaching and Learning. The ability to collaborate with the broader university community and other external organizations including government, professional organizations, schools and school districts is also essential.

The successful candidate will have an earned doctorate in Education or a related discipline and possess a demonstrated teaching, service and research track record. The candidate will have experience in the public education system and be familiar with provincial K-12 and post-secondary programs. Familiarity and expertise in Indigenous Education is also an asset, as is additional administrative or leadership experience within a university or another educational setting applicable to teacher education.

The appointment is for a three-year (renewable) term. The starting date is May 1st, 2018, or shortly thereafter. The deadline for applications is January 31st, 2018.

- Applications must include a letter, a curriculum vitae, a comprehensive statement of a teaching, research and administrative philosophy as well as the names of three referees and should be sent directly to:

  Dr. Kirk Anderson
  Dean, Faculty of Education
  e-mail: educdean@mun.ca

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified persons, visible minorities, Aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.
