

Top 6 Reasons You Want to Live On-Campus at Memorial

1—Comprehensive Transitional Support

Living on campus makes coming to university easier. Our Residence Life Staff are experts in helping new students adjust to being away from home and studying at university/college. Whether they are trying to find their class, decide their degree/diploma program, or just cope with the change in their life, there is always someone here to help.

2—Academic Success

Living on-campus provides our students an academic advantage. With designated study space, academic skills programming, academically successful role models, and peer study groups there is little reason for residents not to be academically successful.

3—Personal Growth and Development

Living on campus provides a unique opportunity for young adults to develop essential life skills and knowledge. Whether through a formalized leadership/involvement opportunity or the uniqueness of communal living, our residents develop interpersonal, conflict resolution, critical thinking, and communication skills while living on campus. Living in residence provides our students an abundance of opportunities for self-discovery, community engagement, and life's important lessons.

4—Exciting Events and Activities

Living on campus connects our residents to the heart of student life at Memorial University. Between the programming on their floor, in their building, across residence, or campus-wide there is always something for everyone. Our residents can expect to choose from a wide variety of social, recreational, educational, and academic activities!

5—Broaden Social Networking

Living on campus instantly connects our residents to their NEW best friends. With 1500 other students living together on our campus they will meet a variety of diverse individuals. The connections and friendships they make while living on Memorial's campus stays with them for the rest of their life. The people with whom they live with quickly become their new family away from home.

6—Super Convenient and Close to Services

Living on campus places everything that our students need at their fingertips. Our residents can save many hours each week because they don't have to make a daily commute to campus. They can use this time for academic advantage if they chose. The Main Dining Hall, The Works Recreational Complex, The Queen Elizabeth II Library, academic buildings and transit stops are only steps away from their home on campus.
