

Department of History Seminar Series

Winter 2012

Thursday, February 9th, 12-1 pm in A4004

Dr. Sean Cadigan, MUN History

“The Working Class and the Oil Boom in Newfoundland and Labrador, 1979-2010: Neoliberal Contradiction and Continuity”

Thursday, March 15th, 12-1 pm in A4004

Dr. John Sandlos, MUN History

“The Giant Mine’s Long Shadow: Arsenic Pollution and Native People in Yellowknife, NWT”

Tuesday, April 3rd, 3:30 pm in A5014 (Dean of Arts Boardroom)

Maritime Studies Research Unit Titanic Centenary Event, “World’s Largest Metaphor Sinks Iceberg”*

Kathy Simonsen (MUN Classics)

Cecilia Moloney (MUN Engineering)

Rainer Baehre (Historical Studies, MUN-SWG)

Ross Klein (MUN Social Work)

Panel Chair: Valerie Burton (MUN History)

*Credit for the original spoof headline belongs to the satirical publication, the Onion, which coined “World’s Largest Metaphor Hits Iceberg” in 1991.