Career Possibilities

The lists below are not all-inclusive but they do represent career possibilities for students with interdisciplinary degrees. Please note some of the career options identified below may require additional education (a second degree or graduate studies) or training such as professional courses and exams.

Aboriginal Studies (Minor) Program studies various aspects of aboriginal people’s experiences and perspectives throughout the world, North America and in particular those inhabiting Newfoundland and Labrador. It focuses on aboriginal histories, language, societies, leadership styles, cultures, religion and issues associated with Aboriginal communities.

Among the many occupations that are relevant to this program are: Educator, Researcher, Environmental Advisor, Community Liaison Worker, Policy Development, Political Office, Aboriginal Issues Coordinator, Youth Worker, Corrections Officer, Journalist, Mediator, Employment Counsellor, Cultural Anthropologist, Communications Officer, Economic Development Manager and Political Analyst or you could work in Healthcare, Forestry, Wildlife and Mining.

Communications Studies (Major) examines how communication and media are integral to the changing relationships between a variety of agents and agencies, from the individual to international relations.

Among the many occupations that are relevant to this program are: Advertising Executive, Broadcast Technician, Broadcaster, Administrator, Communication Specialist, Consumer Advocate, Copywriter, Editor, Entrepreneur, Event Planner, Executive Assistant, Foreign Affairs/Diplomat, Human Resource Manager, Journalist, Legislative Aid, Lobbyist, Market Research Analyst, Media Producer, Policy Advisor/Researcher, Politician, Educator, Proofreader, Public Administrator, Public Affairs Coordinator, Public Relations Specialist, Researcher and Speechwriter.

Film Studies (Minor) teaches students to think historically, theoretically and analytically about film within the broad context of humanistic studies.

Among the many occupations that are relevant to this program are: Artistic Consultant, Broadcaster, Casting Director, Curator, Director, Editor, Film Agent, Film Archivist, Film Critic, Film Maker, Film Researcher, Journalist, Manuscript Reader, Media Consultant, Media Correspondent, Narrator, Playwright, Photographer, Producer, Reporter, Screen Writer, Set Designer, Special Effects Crew, Special Events Coordinator, Stage Crew Manager, Educator, Theatre Administrator and Visual Arts Consultant.
Law & Society (Major & Minor) encourages students to engage in the academic and philosophical study of different facets of law and its role in society.

Among the many occupations that are relevant to this program are: Behaviour Profiler, Business Administrator, Career Counsellor, Child Protection Worker, Claims Examiner/Adjudicator, Coast Guard, Community Outreach Worker, Community Relations Officer, Community Researcher, Corrections Officer, Court Clerk/Officer, Court Reporter, Crime Reporter, Crime Scene/Forensic Analyst, Criminology Assistant, Customs Officer, Demographer, Editor/Publisher, Educator, Facilities Manager, Government Administrator, Historian, Immigration Officer, International Aid Worker, Journalist, Labor Relations Specialist, Lawyer, Legal Aid Worker, Legislative Aid, Lobbyist, Marriage/Family Counsellor, Mediator, Ombudsperson, Paralegal, Police Officer, Politician, Public Affairs Consultant, Public Administrator, Public Relations Specialist, Social Policy Researcher, Social Worker, Social Services, Victims’ Advocate, Youth Worker and Writer/Author.

Medieval Studies (Major & Minor) promotes the integrated study of the Middle Ages, a historical and cultural period defined as the period between Antiquity and the Modern Age.

Among the many occupations that are relevant to this program are: Antiquities Dealer, Appraiser, Archivist, Art Dealer, Author/Playwright, Community Relations, Copywriter, Cultural Affairs Officer, Cultural Interpreter, Editor/Playwright, Community Relations, Copywriter, Cultural Affairs Officer, Cultural Interpreter, Editor/Publisher, Editorial Assistant, Educator, Events/Exhibit Promoter, Exhibit Designer/Planner, Film Consultant, Film/TV Researcher, Foreign Affairs/Diplomat, Foreign Embassy Staff, Freelance Writer, Gallery Manager, Government Officer, Historian, Historical Museum Administrator, Historical Site Guide, Human Resources Generalist, Librarian, Movie Prop Designer, Museum Administrator, Museum Curator/Director, Researcher, Policy Analyst, Preservationist, Production Assistant (film/TV), Prop Master, Public Information Officer, Publicist, Script Supervisor, Stage/Set Designer, Student Life Co-ordinator, Travel Consultant, Travel Writer and Writer/Author.

Newfoundland Studies (Minor) encourages students to better understand the history, social culture, language, geography, scientific knowledge, philosophy, and contemporary experiences of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Among the many occupations that are relevant to this program are: Activist, Ambassador, Author/Playwright, Community Relations, Copywriter, Cultural Affairs Officer, Cultural Interpreter, Editor/Publisher, Editorial Assistant, Educator, Events/Exhibit Promoter, Exhibit Designer/Planner, Foreign Correspondent, Foreign Services Officer, Freelance Writer, Gallery Manager, Historian, Historical Museum Administrator, Historical Site Guide, Human Resources Generalist, Librarian, Museum Curator/Director, Politics, Researcher, Policy Analyst, Preservationist, Travel Consultant, Travel Writer and Writer/Author.
Police Studies (Major) is the study of the different facets of policing institutions and practices, including the legal, political and social contexts in which they operate. This program would be beneficial for students with a scholarly interest in policing, corrections or law enforcement.

Among the many occupations that are relevant to this program are: Addictions Counsellor, Airport Security, Animal Cruelty Investigator, Arson Investigator, Behaviour Profiler, Child Protection Worker, Claims Examiner/Adjudicator, Coast Guard, Community Outreach Worker, Community Relations Officer, Community Researcher, Consumer Affairs Investigator, Corporate Security, Corrections Officer, Court Clerk/Officer, Court Reporter, Credit Investigator, Crime Reporter, Crime Scene/Forensic Analyst, Criminology Assistant, Customs Officer, Demographer, Facilities Manager, Gaming Enforcement, Immigration Officer, Insurance/Fraud Investigator, International Aid Worker, Loss Prevention Specialist, Mediator, Ombudsperson, Paralegal, Park Ranger, Parole/Probation Officer, Police Officer, Policy Analyst/Advisor, Politician, Polygraph Technician, Private Investigator, Public Administrator, Educator, Security Management, Social Worker, Victim Advocate, Wildlife/Fisheries Officer and Youth Worker.