agencies will be introducing a new model for the CGS-Masters awards this fall, based on consultations over the past six months. More detailed communications will be shared with institutions in the coming weeks, but the essence of the change is to shift to a single-stage process, in which institutions will receive a quota of awards based on an incoming model (i.e., for students proposing to undertake Master's degree on their campus), and adjudication will take place entirely at the institutional level. A single, harmonized application form will be hosted on the NSERC/SSHRC Research Portal, and dates, criteria and regulations will be harmonized across the three granting agencies. SSHRC expects the new form to be available by September 1, 2013, with an application deadline in December.

SSHRC site redesign emphasizes mobile browsing, interoperability and accessibility

SSHRC is updating its website. The redesign emphasizes four key elements: mobile device compatibility, interoperability, usability, institutional) at a time.

Furthermore, an applicant / project director may apply for only one Connection Grant per calendar year.

- The maximum value of a Connection grant for an event is now $25,000. The value of a Connection grant for other outreach activity will remain at $50,000 (with higher amounts considered on an exceptional basis).

- SSHRC will not fund the full cost of any connection event or outreach activity. Additional support in the form of cash and /or in kind contributions (excluding registration fees) equivalent to a minimum of 50 per cent of the amount requested from SSHRC must come from other sources, such as sponsors.

- Results will normally be announced to candidates within 16 weeks from confirmed receipt of the application.

- Funding decisions will be announced four times per year, i.e., in June, September, December and March. For the current fiscal year, which is ending on March 31, 2014, approximately $1,000,000 will be awarded in grants for each of the three remaining announcements.
