Teaching Term Appointment in English Literature

Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, has a population of more than 1,300 students and emphasizes innovative approaches to teaching and learning, research and engagement. Experiential learning, impactful research and strong community relationships are the hallmarks of Grenfell Campus’ profile.

The English Programme, School of Arts and Social Science welcomes applications for a 4-month teaching term appointment in English Literature at the rank of Lecturer or Visiting Assistant Professor depending on the qualifications. The position will begin on September 1, 2017 and end on December 31, 2017.

The successful candidate will have at least an M.A. in English Literature (Ph.D. preferred). Some teaching experience is preferred. The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching first-year courses focusing on prose forms, poetry, drama and composition.

Applications will be accepted until 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 21, 2017. A letter of application along with a curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including evidence of teaching effectiveness and a sample course outline) and the names and contact information for three references should be sent in electronic form to: Dr. Laura Robinson, Dean, School of Arts and Social Science, Grenfell Campus, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Corner Brook, NL A2H 6P9. Telephone: (709) 637-6202; email: sassdean@grenfell.mun.ca.

All appointments are subject to budgetary approval. Salary will reflect qualifications and experience in accordance with the Collective Agreement governing faculty at Memorial University of Newfoundland.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is strongly committed to employment equity and especially welcomes applications from all qualified candidates, including women, members of visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, members of sexual minorities and persons with disabilities.