Teaching Term Appointments: Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences

Memorial University of Newfoundland will make teaching term appointments in the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, subject to budgetary approval and to sufficient enrolments, during the Spring and Fall semesters of 2017 and Winter semester of 2018. Departments and programs in the Faculty that may make such appointments are: Classics, English, Modern Languages (French, German and the Frecker program in Saint-Pierre), Philosophy, Political Science, Religious Studies and Sociology. The minimum qualification for teaching term appointments is normally a completed doctoral degree in the discipline, though in some cases a master’s degree in the discipline together with appropriate teaching experience may be an acceptable qualification. For further details on these appointments, please contact the head of the appropriate department. Please forward, by March 24, 2017, a curriculum vitae, evidence of effective teaching, and the names and addresses of three referees, to Dr. Lynne Phillips, Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, Newfoundland, A1C 5S7.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people, and persons with disabilities.
