Request for Workplace Accommodation Form

Workplace accommodations can be based on any of the prohibited grounds under the Newfoundland and Labrador Human Rights Act, 2010. These grounds are listed in the Definition section of the University’s Workplace Accommodation Policy.

Accommodation – Accommodation is the duty owed by the University to an employee or job applicant not to discriminate against them. It is any temporary or permanent measure used to remove a barrier which prevents an otherwise qualified individual from performing or fulfilling the essential duties of a job. The University will attempt to accommodate the employment needs of job applicants and employees who are protected under the Human Rights Act, 2010, up to the point of undue hardship.

In order for Memorial University to consider a request for an accommodation some information is needed and documentation related to this request is required.

1. Describe the basis for your request for a workplace accommodation.
