

INUIT OF SOUTHERN LABRADOR

*Iron-bladed ulu
from a 17th-century Inuit sod house near Sandwich Bay.*

*Iron-bladed ulus and bone-handled knife and fork.
Early to mid-20th-century,
South coast of Labrador.*

*Soapstone seal-oil lamp,
from an 18th-century Inuit
house near Cartwright.*

*Part of a 1765 map depicting a meeting between Governor Hugh Palliser, aboard his flagship HMS Guernsey, and the Inuit of Chateaux Bay on August 21, 1765.
This was part of a month-long proclamation of a Peace and Friendship Treaty between the government of Great Britain and the Inuit of Labrador.*
