

Music Academy

I've Always Wanted to Sing!

"There's no such thing as not being able to carry a tune." That's the philosophy anchoring this enormously popular class. By practising in small groups, in a comfortable atmosphere, you'll receive the encouragement you need to develop your basic singing skills and the belief in yourself to use them.

Wed., Feb. 3 – March 24 (8 classes), 7 – 8:15 p.m.
$99. Facilitator: Shelley Neville.

Keep on Singing!

I've Always Wanted to Sing recommended. Once you start singing, it's hard to stop. So DON'T! Practising in small groups in a relaxed atmosphere, you'll continue developing your singing skills while building confidence in your performance.

Wed., Feb. 3 – March 24 (8 classes), 8:30 – 9:45 p.m.
$99. Facilitator: Shelley Neville.

Introductory Guitar

Chording is taught through an easy-to-learn, step-by-step approach, using examples from popular songs. Before you know it, you'll be in tune with the basics of playing the guitar.

.....
Mon., Jan. 25 – March 29 (10 classes), 7 – 8 p.m.
$149. Facilitator: Dr. Martin Steffen.

Intermediate Guitar: Building on the Basics

Introductory Guitar recommended.

In addition to building on the skills acquired in Introductory Guitar, you'll also be introduced to bar chording, finger picking and playing melodic lines.

.....
Wed., Jan. 27 – March 31 (10 classes), 8 – 9 p.m.
$149. Facilitator: Andrew Wicks.

Accordion, Level 1

Accordions are supplied for this class.

The accordion is at the heart of the Newfoundland musical experience. Now it's your chance to bring the accordion into your life. You'll learn how to hold the instrument, about bellow control and about finger positioning, all within the framework of eight notes. A great way to learn in a fun, relaxed setting.

.....
Thu., Feb. 4 – March 11 (6 classes), 7 – 9 p.m. $169.
Facilitator: Randy Ring.
