

Writing

Creative Writing, Level 1

Do you enjoy writing poetry or fiction? Discover sources of inspiration that will have you thinking and writing creatively. Through writing exercises, group discussion, suggested readings and critiques of participants' work, you'll learn to express everyday thoughts and feelings using unique and interesting written works.

.....
Tue., Jan. 26 – March 16 (8 classes), 7 – 9:30 p.m.
$199. Facilitator: Ed Kavanagh.

Creative Writing, Level 2

Creative Writing, Level 1, recommended.
Develop a style of writing that is uniquely yours. Analyze your work to find ways to make your writing more creative and polished. Through exercises, close reading and discussion, you'll learn to rely on yourself—as opposed to outside sources—to write creative poetry, fiction and more.

.....
Thu., Jan. 28 – March 18 (8 classes), 7 – 9:30 p.m.
$199. Facilitator: Ed Kavanagh.

Writing Children's Literature

This course may be used by members of the Association of Early Childhood Educators to satisfy continuing education requirements.

An in-depth look at the craft of writing children's literature. You are encouraged to bring your own stories to class. The focus will include fiction and non-fiction, general children's stories, picture books and young adult novels. There will be a strong emphasis on technique. Editing and the submission of completed work will also be covered.

.....
Wed., Jan. 27 – March 17 (8 classes), 7 – 9:30 p.m.
$199. Facilitator: Ed Kavanagh.

Truly an excellent class!
Ed is an excellent teacher.
One of the best courses
I've taken . . . ever.

Creative Writing, Level 1