Abstract:

Tensor categories are the natural setting for the understanding of many applications of Hopf algebras. In this talk I will introduce them and then I will discuss how to obtain tensor categories from spherical Hopf algebras and how we hope to discover new examples in this way.