

Philosophy Graduation, May 2008

Congratulations, everyone!

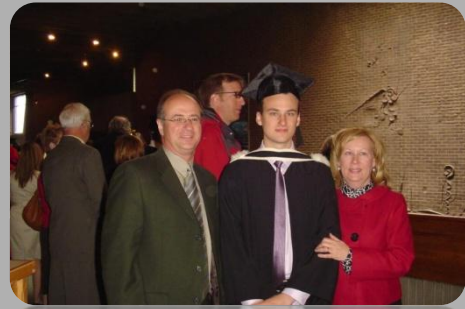

A sampling of philosophy grads from left to right: Mike Lahey, Kyle Rees, Chris Fitzpatrick, Rob Seabright

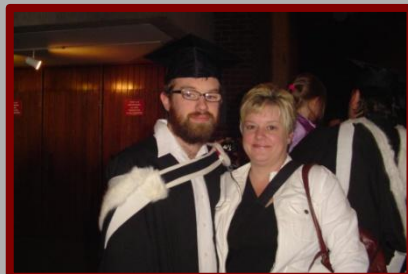

Kyle Rees, winner of the 2009 Philosophy Medal and also of the 2009 James Good Scholarship, here with his girlfriend Laura. Kyle is currently at Osgoode Hall Law School, one of the (many) natural trajectories for a philosopher

Kyle and his family

Rob with philosophy faculty member Suma Rajiva, with his Mom and also with his friend Greg, graduating from English. Rob is back at Memorial this fall, doing his M.A. in philosophy.

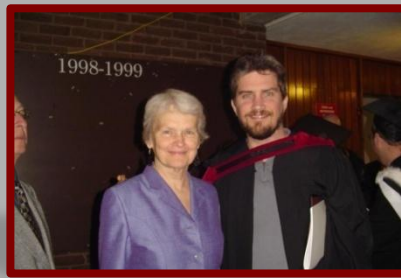

Justin Osmond, graduating with degrees in Music and Philosophy and Phil Milley graduating in philosophy and seen here at convocation with philosophy faculty member Toni Stafford. Justin and Phil are also back at Memorial this fall, doing the M.A. in the Philosophy Department.

Some “friends of philosophy”:

Peter Mackey, graduating from the M.Phil. in Humanities and now at York for his Ph.D.

Tom Artiss also graduating from the M.Phil., and currently doing his Ph.D at Cambridge, with his mom, Phyllis, well-known to everyone from the English Dept. and Women’s Studies.

(If you were accidentally left out or would like more info or pictures to appear here, please contact the web maintainer)