

A University Policy:

- states the University's position on issues which have University-wide application
- embodies the University's governing principles and helps to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations
- enhances the University's mission or reduces institutional risk
- changes infrequently
- is formally approved by the Board of Regents