Requirements for the Certificate in Criminology
2016/2017

The University Calendar is the final authority on university regulations. It is the student’s responsibility to be familiar with all program regulations associated with their program.

The certificate in Criminology consists of 21 credit hours as prescribed below. Six credit hours must be at the 3000-level or higher and no more than 15 credit hours shall be in a single discipline. Regulations for this certificate can be found at http://www.mun.ca/regoff/calendar/sectionNo=ARTS-7738.

12 credit hours in Sociology:
- Sociology 1000
- Sociology 2300 (see note below)
- Sociology 3290
- Sociology 3395

3 credit hours in either
- Law & Society 1000 or 2000

6 additional credit hours at the 2000-level or above chosen from Table 1 Courses Approved for the Certificate in Criminology;

Completed: _______________ and _______________

Not all courses are offered every semester. Students are strongly advised to consult with the Program Coordinator for assistance with course planning. Students who complete 3 credit hours in a research methods course in Psychology (2910, 2911, 2920, 2925 (Grenfell Campus only)) or Sociology (3040, 3041) shall, for the purposes of the Certificate, be deemed to have fulfilled 3 credit hours in Sociology 2300. The former Sociology 2000 may be used in lieu of Sociology 1000.

Students are advised to generally follow the suggested course sequencing presented below

Suggested Course Sequencing:
- First 6 credit hours: Law and Society 1000, Sociology 1000
- Next 9 credit hours: Sociology 2300, 3290, 3395 (requires SOCI 3290 as prerequisite)
- Final 6 credit hours: two additional approved courses, one in a discipline other than Sociology

Note: Normal course prerequisites will apply. Students should note that Psychology 1000 and 1001 are prerequisites (in addition to the 21 credit hours specified for the certificate) for Psychology 2920.

Graduation Requirements
1. To be eligible for the award of a certificate offered by the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, a student must have obtained an overall average of 60% or higher in the courses prescribed for that program.
2. A minimum of 9 credit hours in courses prescribed for the certificate program must be completed at this University.

NOTE: All program reviews are unofficial. Official program audits are available through the Office of the Registrar. Students can request a program audit by emailing audit_arts@mun.ca.
