Per Course Instructor Teaching Opportunities – Fall 2018
Memorial University of Newfoundland
Faculty of Humanities & Social Sciences; Department of Political science

The Department of Political Science invites applications for per course appointments for the following Political Science courses to be offered by distance (CITL) in the Fall term of 2018.

The Per Course Instructor is required to prepare and deliver the course content in accordance with the University Senate approved calendar descriptions and the Department of Political Science guidelines.

3880-081 Newfoundland and Labrador Politics (Distance)

Newfoundland and Labrador Politics is a study of the political process in Newfoundland and Labrador. Topics may include electoral behavior and attitudes, the party system, leadership styles, the consequences of federalism and public administration, offered by distance (CITL) in the Fall academic term 2018.

Required qualifications:

A Masters’ level qualification in Canadian Politics and/or the Politics of Newfoundland and Labrador is required. Previous relevant teaching experience at the University level in either Canadian Politics or Politics of Newfoundland and Labrador is required. Applicants should have primary research interests in Canadian Politics and/or the Politics of Newfoundland and Labrador and, recent experience teaching through distance education.

The rate of pay for all positions is according to the LUMUN Collective Agreement.

Memorial University of Newfoundland is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: June 28, 2018
Applicants should send a cover letter outlining their qualifications, a Curriculum Vitae, and the names and addresses of three references who can be contacted. Applications can be submitted to:

Dr. Russell Williams
Head, Department of Political Science
Memorial University
St. John’s, NL A1B 3X9

Email: polisci@mun.ca