Applications are invited from qualified individuals who are interested in being considered for a position as a per course instructor teaching Psychology 3533 Sexual Behaviour in Winter semester 2017 on the St. John’s campus. The course is scheduled for Slot 20 T R 15.30-16.45, although this may change. The Calendar description is:

3533 Sexual Behavior covers the most important aspects of human sexuality with a psychology theory and research framework. The course will examine the biological, behavioural and socio-cultural bases of the human sexual response. Topics include sexual interaction and communication, contraception, sexually transmitted infections, reproduction, sexual orientation, transgender and intersex, variations in sexual behaviour, sex and gender, sexual dysfunction and therapy, and sexual coercion.

Required qualifications: (1) A demonstrated knowledge of psychology and of the specific topics noted in the course description; (2) an M.Sc. in psychology; (3) evidence of effective teaching, and (4) demonstrated experience conducting research in psychology at the Masters level are required. Preference will be given first to applicants who have previously taught Psychology 3533 on the St. John’s campus, and secondarily to applicants who have previous experience teaching the equivalent of Psychology 3533 elsewhere.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, evidence of effective teaching, and the names of three references in electronic form to: Psychsecretary@mun.ca

If electronic submission is not possible, applicants may send the information to:

Head, Department of Psychology
Memorial University of Newfoundland
St. John’s, NL
A1B 3X9

The deadline for receipt of complete applications is 4:00 PM, 21 October, 2017.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.