

Reginald H. Brown Law Scholarship (DUE APRIL 18, 2017)

The Reginald H. Brown Q.C. Memorial Scholarship is established at Memorial University of Newfoundland in memory of Reginald H. Brown, K. St. J., Q.C., through generous lead donations by Pamela Brown and Reg's colleagues at Cox & Palmer. Described as "a lawyer's lawyer", Reg Brown was a loyal friend and colleague who combined a very challenging and successful litigation practice with the leadership of his law firm as managing partner of Cox & Palmer, an Atlantic Canadian law firm established only two weeks before his death in early 2007. Reg balanced his demanding professional life and leadership in service of his profession and the community with the philosophy that family came first. The Reginald H. Brown Q.C. Memorial Scholarship is to be awarded at convocation to a student graduating from any area of study and accepted at law school. Selection will be made on the basis of academic excellence (with a minimum of scholarship standing) and demonstrated leadership qualities as epitomized by Reg in charitable, athletic, artistic or political endeavours, whether in student life or in the community at large. The scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards.

If you are a psychology or behavioural neuroscience student and would like to be considered for this award please e-mail Christina Thorpe (cthorpe@mun.ca) your nomination package. This must include your resume, a 1-page summary of your extracurricular activities during your time at memorial and proof of your acceptance to law school. All of these documents should be included as one pdf document. Deadline: April 18, 2017

The Dr. James L. Walker Convocation Award (DUE APRIL 27, 2017)

This award was established in memory of Dr. James L. Walker, a Brandon University department head, psychology professor and research consultant whose innovative teaching, socially relevant research and integration of research into treatment programs for Alzheimer's patients transformed the lives of students, colleagues and patients. Valued at $1,000, it will be awarded at convocation to a graduating undergraduate student in the Psychology honors program who has demonstrated both academic excellence (a minimum of clear standing) and leadership within their community. The award will be conferred by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards upon the recommendation of the Head, Department of Psychology.

If you would like to be considered for this award please e-mail Christina Thorpe (cthorpe@mun.ca) your resume/cv and a 1-page summary of how you have demonstrated leadership within your community. All of these documents should be included as one pdf document. Deadline: April 27, 2017

Captain Robert Bartlett award (DUE APRIL 21, 2017)

As a spontaneous expression of their admiration and affection for a man who has a lasting place in the history of polar exploration, the Explorers' Club of New York and two kindred organizations - the Wilderness Club of Philadelphia and the Harvard Travellers' Club of Massachusetts - donated a sum of money to this University, as a memorial to Captain Bartlett. The University has placed this money in a trust fund, the interest on which is the value of the award. It will be based primarily on academic excellence. Consideration may also be given to the demonstration of the spirit of scientific exploration. The award is made annually to a student graduating in Science, on the recommendation of the President.

If you are a psychology or behavioural neuroscience student and would like to be considered for this award please e-mail Christina Thorpe (cthorpe@mun.ca) your resume/cv and a 1-page summary of how you have demonstrated the spirit of scientific excellence. All of these documents should be included as one pdf document. You will also need a letter of support from someone familiar with your research (e.g., honours supervisor). This letter should be e-mailed directly to Dr. Thorpe.
Deadline: April 21, 2017
