Psychology Research Day Schedule

April 1, 2015: Junior Commons Room, Gushue Hall

9:30: Introductions and Opening Remarks

Honours Students’ Talks

9:30-9:40: Therese Kenny (Behavioural Neuroscience): Rapamycin Protects Against the Cognitive and Depressive Symptoms Associated with Chronic Food Restriction.

9:40-9:50: Chris Singleton (Clinical): Emotion Regulation as a Predictor of Weight Regain in an Obese Sample

9:50-10:00: Nadine Rockwood (Cognitive): Metamemory for Studying: Students' Awareness of Effective Learning Strategies

10:00-10:10: Laura Fallon (Social): The Effect of Eye Contact and Explanation of Note-Taking Process on the Perception of Note-Takers and Information Provision

10:10-10:20: Coffee Break

Graduate Student Talks

10:20-10:40: Cari Seffinga (Cognitive): Investigating the effects of dual-tasks on immediate memory

10:40-11:00: Brandon Slaney (Cognitive): The Production Effect and Divided Attention: Is Purposeful Attention Required?

11:00-11:20: Megan Pollard (Developmental): Individual Difference and Task Factors Associated with Multitasking Success

11:20-11:35: Coffee Break

11:55-12:15: Susan Doyle (Clinical): Child anxiety, resiliency, and the FRIENDS for Life Program

12:15-12:30: Poster Session Set-up and Pre-Viewing

12:30-2:30: Honours poster session (Lunch Provided)

2:45: Award’s ceremony

3:30: Social at Bitter’s