The 7th Annual Psychology Research Day.

Graduate Student Talks

9:30-9:50: Anne-Marie Chaulk (Behavioural Neuroscience - Thorpe): Contributions of light- and food-entrainable oscillators to learning a daily Time-Place Task

9:50-10:10: Pam Chaulk (Behavioural Neuroscience - Thorpe): Rats' behaviour on an elevated plus maze time-place learning task

10:10-10:30: Meghan Quinlan (Behavioural Neuroscience – Martin/Walling/Skinner): In vivo optogenetic activation of locus coeruleus and consequent long term effects on the perforant path evoked potential in dentate gyrus

10:30-10:50: Katelyn Fallon (Behavioural Neuroscience – Blundell/Skinner/Martin): Examining associative and non-associative fear memories in the Rat Exposure Test

10:50-11:10: Coffee Break

11:30-11:50: Zak Keeping (Social - Snook): Don't stop believing: Alibi believability in the absence of witnesses

11:50-12:10: Ashley Jacobs (Developmental - Drover): A comparison of the accuracy of two tests of refractive error

12:30-2:30: Honours Poster Session (lunch will be provided)

2:45: Award’s Ceremony