

The 8th Annual Psychology Research Day.

THURSDAY, APRIL 6

PLEASE JOIN THE PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT AS WE CELEBRATE THE WONDERFUL RESEARCH OUR UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE STUDENTS HAVE UNDERTAKEN THIS PAST YEAR. THE DAY WILL INCLUDE TALKS BY THE SECOND YEAR MASTERS STUDENTS, A POSTER SESSION OF THE HONOURS THESES, AND AN AWARD'S CEREMONY.

THE TALKS AND AWARD'S CEREMONY WILL TAKE PLACE IN A1043.

THE POSTER SESSION AND LUNCH WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE BRUNEAU CENTRE ATRIUM.

www.mun.ca/psychology

Graduate Student Talks

9:30-9:50: Laura Fallon (Social/MAPS - Snook): An examination of the use of inter-rater reliability in forensic psychology journals

9:50-10:10: Chris Lively (Social - Snook): Examining the examiners: A study of lawyer questioning practices

10:10-10:30: Felix Ayesu (Developmental – Hallett): It can be a one-way street: Individual differences in conceptual and procedural knowledge of algebra

10:30-10:50: Landon Churchill (Cognitive - Hourihan): I believe in a thing called emotion: Effects of valence on memory monitoring and performance

10:50-11:05: Coffee Break

11:05-11:25: Andrew Gabel (Cognitive - Neath): Adding latent semantic analysis to the SIMPLE model

11:25-11:45: Therese Kenny (Clinical/Health – Carter-Major): Examining difficulties with emotion regulation in binge eating disorder

11:45-12:05: Jesse Whiteman (Behavioural Neuroscience - Blundell): Animal models for testing PTSD drug treatments: Focus on predator stress and mTOR

12:30-2:30: Honours Poster Session (lunch will be provided)

2:45: Award's Ceremony

3:30: Social at Bitter's (Organized by the undergraduate and graduate students)