Report of the Provost to Convocation

Hymn: Be Thou My Vision

1. Be thou my vision O Lord of my heart;
Naught be all else to me save that thou art –
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.
2. Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true Word;
I ever with thee, and thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father; thine own may I be,
Thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee.

Still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

Convocation Address

The Rev'd Dr. Jo Bailey Wells will address Convocation

Hymn: To God Be the Glory

1. To God be the glory, who great things has done!
God so loved the world, freely sending the Son,
Who yielded his life an atonement for sin,
And opened the life-gate that all may go in
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the earth hear God's voice.
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father through Jesus the Son,
And give God the Glory, who great things has done!

2. O perfect redemption, the purchase of blood,
To every believer the promise of God:
That when the offender, repenting, believes,
Through Jesus' atonement, God's pardon receives.
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the earth hear God's voice.
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Let the people rejoice!

*O come to the Father through Jesus the Son,
And give God the Glory, who great things has done!*

3. Great things God has taught us, great things God has done,
And great our rejoicing through Jesus the Son;
But purer and higher and greater will be
Our wonder, our gladness when Jesus we see!
*Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!
Let the earth hear God's voice.
Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Let the people rejoice!
O come to the Father through Jesus the Son,
And give God the Glory, who great things has done!*

The Dismissal

The Ode to Newfoundland

When sun-rays crown
thy pine-clad hills,
And summer spreads her hand
When silver voices tune thy rills,
We love thee, smiling land,
We love thee, we love thee,
We love thee smiling land.

As loved our fathers, so we love,
Where once they stood we stand,
Their prayer we raise
to Heaven above,
God guard thee, Newfoundland.
God guard thee, God guard thee,
God guard thee, Newfoundland.

Recessional

Our gratitude is expressed to Mr. David Drinkell F.R.C.O. for providing the music on this occasion.

We also thank the Ven. John Dinn, Mrs. Mary Steele, the Rev'd David Pilling, and the Rev'd Lynn Courage, the Marshals for Convocation 2009.

We appreciate the kindness and courtesy extended to us by the Parish of the Ascension for the use of their facility, to their Men's Service Club for assisting with parking, and to their A.C.W. and Men's Service Club for providing the Reception.

A reception for all those attending Convocation follows in the Parish Hall.

OUR CONVOCATION SPEAKER

The Reverend Dr. Jo Bailey Wells

Associate Professor of the Practice of Christian Ministry and Bible, and Director of Anglican Studies at Duke University Divinity School in Durham, North Carolina

Jo Bailey Wells teaches Old Testament and biblical theology, particularly in relation to its contemporary relevance for ministry. She also directs (and teaches in) Anglican Studies. The Anglican Episcopal House of Studies is designed to meet both academic and formational interests of the growing number of Anglicans and Episcopalians who come to study at Duke.

Professor Wells' scholarly writing has focused on Old Testament theology. Her books include God's Holy People: A Theme in Biblical Theology (Sheffield, 2000) and Isaiah in the People's Bible Commentary series (BRF, 2006). She also enjoys devotional writing (for example, with Scripture Union, the College of Preachers and The Church Times), seeking to bring the fruits of biblical scholarship to a wider audience within the Church.

She is a priest ordained in the first wave of women priests in the Church of England who has previously served as dean of Clare College as well as lecturer in Old Testament at Ridley Hall, both in Cambridge, UK.
