Perched on Canada's North Atlantic coast, Memorial University of Newfoundland is a destination for discovery. A beacon for the 21st-century explorer, Newfoundland and Labrador's university is a unique learning community dedicated to those who lost their lives in the First World War and in subsequent conflicts. Today more than 18,000 students and 5,000 faculty and staff from nearly 100 countries come together to explore. From the classics to advanced technology, the University offers certificate, diploma, undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate programs across four campuses and through online education. A global network of almost 90,000 accomplished alumni throughout the world strengthen Memorial University of Newfoundland's reputation for leadership in world-class research, teaching and public engagement.

The 2017-2018 University Calendar and the printable Calendar PDF files are on-line at www.mun.ca/regoff/calendar.php.

IN MEMORIAM

Three hundred and ten former students of the Memorial University College offered themselves for active service in the Second Great War, 1939-1945. The University holds in special honour the past students who have been reported dead or missing and whose names are here given.
