REGULAR AGENDA

44. Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science Strategic Plan 2013-2018

The Strategic Plan 2013-2018 and a Proposal for the Creation of Departments was received from the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science. The President called on Dr. Greg Naterer, Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science, to present these items.

Dr. Naterer gave a brief summary of these documents.

The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science (FEAS) at Memorial University of Newfoundland (Memorial) has a long proud tradition and reputation for excellence in engineering education and research. In keeping with the University’s strategic plan, FEAS has the following vision and mission.

Our Vision
The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science will be one of the most distinguished engineering faculties in Canada and beyond, and will fulfill its special obligation to the people of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Our Mission
The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science is dedicated to the highest quality of teaching and learning, research, service and external engagement, in order to make a significant positive impact on society, locally, nationally and internationally.

This strategic plan identifies the key priorities, goals and action plans for the future growth of the Faculty. It aims to build on existing strengths and capitalize on future growth opportunities. The plan is based on the following key underlying principles.

- Enhance our national reputation and visibility as one of the strongest engineering faculties in Canada.
- Deliver high-quality undergraduate and graduate programs that are responsive to the needs of industry, and provide skills that will enable our students to succeed.
- Raise our profile internationally by leveraging world-class research and facilities for global leadership in strategic areas of strength.

- Enhance co-op education programs and ensure co-op education remains core to all existing and future undergraduate programs and options.

The plan also outlines the priority areas of growth, rationale and necessary resources (personnel and infrastructure) to achieve the goals. The faculty complement is projected to grow from 58 in 2012 to 100 by 2020, along with the necessary support staff and accompanying physical resources to complement this growth. The growth is planned strategically to capitalize on our unique opportunities and build on our existing major strengths, particularly focussed on distinction in ocean, arctic and offshore energy technologies.

Due to significant growth of the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science (FEAS), there is a need to modify its organizational structure. This proposal presents the needs and advantages of a new departmental structure. It describes the new structure, advantages of the re-organization, and modified roles and responsibilities of Department Heads. There was wide consultation with all concerned, including faculty, staff and students, FEAS Faculty Council, EASAC (Engineering and Applied Science Advisory Council), and other stakeholders. This proposal was unanimously approved by FEAS Faculty Council on July 3, 2013. The P&T and Search Committee procedures will be determined separately through the MUNFA collective bargaining process. The proposed start date of the new departmental structure is May 1, 2014.

It was moved by Dr. Naterer, seconded by Dr. George, to recommend to the Board of Regents the creation of a departmentalized structure for the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science.

Some of the questions/comments raised by Senators:

- with the assumption of growth, where are all the good students going to come from
- how easy is it to increase the number of women in the faculty
- is there a problem keeping good students
- is there any plan for enhancing the graduate student financial support
- what will be lost by being departmentalized
- departments will vary in size

Dr. Naterer responded to questions from Senators. He noted that they are working with the Recruitment Office to attract students from outside of Newfoundland to Memorial as we have many unique programs. He stated that there will be a number of enhancements for graduate students and that course-based graduate programs are going through an external review. They are also looking at an internship option for graduate students. The Faculty will want to try and avoid creating barriers between departments. Space and labs will be controlled at the Faculty level and not Departmental level. They will encourage cross-disciplinary courses. Department size should not be a major challenge, as budget will be allocated by the Faculty according to the number of courses taught in each department.

The motion was put to a vote and passed.

45. Annual Report of the Senate Committee on Course Evaluation, 2012-2013 Academic Year

The Annual Report of the Senate Committee on Course Evaluation, 2012-2013 Academic Year, was received for the information of Senate. Dr. Ken Snelgrove, Chair of the Senate Committee on Course Evaluation, and Ms. Sharon Pippy, Centre for Institutional Analysis and Planning, were in attendance to answer questions.

Senators raised the following points:

- low response rates on CEQ’s
- questioned the two week time period to complete the CEQ’s
- whether the paper system worked better with higher response rates as students completed CEQ’s in class
- class size affects the ratings
- students are not likely to complete the CEQ’s if we do not allot a time for it
- because students have more time, they will give better answers
- extending the deadline past the examination
- other universities have experienced an initial drop in ratings, but with promotion the ratings rise over time

It was noted that CIAP will continue to monitor averages and trends in class size. For this Fall Semester, they are analyzing data in more detail. It is a continuous process.

In response to the suggestion that, for comparative reasons, we move forward with a dual format of CEQs, both online and paper-based, the President noted that at the June 11, 2013 meeting of Senate it was agreed to abandon the paper system. The Committee on Course Evaluation will report to Senate at the end of each semester.
46. REPORT OF THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON HONORARY DEGREES AND CEREMONIAL

Senate moved into a closed session for this item of business in accordance with Section IV.E.2. SENATE MEETINGS AND PROCEDURES of the Handbook of Senate By-Laws and Procedures which reads:

The name of one candidate recommended by the Committee on Honorary Degrees and Ceremonial was presented to the Senate for the award of the title of Dean Emeritus for eventual consideration by the Board of Regents.
