The remaining two credits may be selected from 2000-level courses in the above-noted subject areas or from Science 1206.”

47. REPORT OF THE SENATE COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES

A memorandum dated November 10, 2005 was received from the Committee on Committees recommending the appointment of Mr. Cliff Guy, (Graduate Students’ Union Representative) to the Senate Committee on Research for a term of office commencing immediately and ending on March 31, 2006. The motion to approve the recommendation of the Committee on Committees which was moved by Dr. Clark, seconded by Mr. Andrews, carried.

48. REPORT OF THE SENATE AD HOC COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER AN APPEAL BY STUDENT ECS 2004-05: #9

At the February 2005 meeting of Senate, an ad hoc Committee was appointed to consider the appeal of Student ECS 2004-05: #9 to deny the student permission to register for Engineering 6871 and 6843 during the Fall Semester 2004 and to deny the student’s supplementary requests.

At today’s meeting, Dr. Adamec, ad hoc Committee Chair, introduced the members of the ad hoc Committee, Ms. Elizabeth Hillman, Dr. David Philpott, Mr. Cletus Flaherty, and Ms. Karen Hollett and presented the final report of the ad hoc Committee.

Dr. Adamec reported that the ad hoc Committee met on several occasions to discuss and review the terms of reference and documentation received. A complete list of meetings and interviews with the student and others involved in the matter is contained within the report. He also noted that the appeal referred specifically to the denial of permission to register in Fall 2004 for two courses, Engineering 6871 and Engineering 6843, and that those specific academic matters have been addressed/resolved. After review and consideration of the documentation and the interviews conducted, the ad hoc Committee made the following six recommendations (incorporating a friendly amendment to Recommendation 1 made on the floor of Senate):

Recommendation 1: It is important that the process of program change work as quickly and smoothly as possible in the future to reduce the chance of further problems, delays and frustration for all parties. The student must be encouraged to make timely and appropriate requests to avoid adding stress to his personal, academic and financial situation.

Recommendation 2: There is a need for more timely and efficient exchange of information pertaining to accommodations, and a process to facilitate authoritative consideration of and recommendations for new accommodations of the learning disability of the appellant (and other students with similar challenges).

Recommendation 3: That the Senate review the current practice which prohibits students from presenting their appeal cases in person (in addition to a written appeal, as specified in the Calendar). Representation in person could be permitted where necessary and reasonable as a learning disability accommodation or based on individual need. In the case before us, a verbal presentation might have been accepted as an alternate format and a reasonable accommodation of the appellant’s learning disability, just as the student is permitted additional time and paper for written expression. Whether it would have changed the outcome of the appeal is moot, but it would very likely have reduced the appellant’s profound sense of grievance and the conviction that the appeals mechanism is cloaked in secrecy. If numbers on a committee prohibit an in-person presentation by an appellant, a sub-committee could meet with a student appellant. The AD HOC Committee recognizes that this may introduce the possibility that an appellant would seek to be accompanied by a fellow student, a parent, or a lawyer. The aim is not to facilitate escalation, but to promote openness, to increase the transparency of the process that exists. It should be noted, that in requiring that an appeal be submitted in writing, the Calendar does not preclude in-person representation by appellants. In addition, there may be other situations where natural justice and due process would suggest the right to verbal presentation.

Recommendation 4: The AD HOC Committee recommends that an appellant be permitted a review of the material submitted by other parties as part of the appeal committee’s review and consideration of an appeal. In addition, the appellant should have a limited right of rebuttal as part of their written and/or verbal case presentation to the appeal committee. This type of process is not without precedent as in a case of investigation of alleged academic dishonesty, where there are interviews, an investigation, a report and opportunity for rebuttal.
Report of the Senate ad hoc Committee to Consider an Appeal by Student ECS 2004-05: #9 (cont’d)

Recommendation 5: That there be a review of the Learning Disability accommodation services provided by the Blundon Centre. One focus of such a review should consider whether or not those services might be improved by the provision of a full time position in the capacity of consultant/facilitator/strategist with expertise in learning disabilities special needs. Such an expert strategist should be able to provide substantiated requests for accommodation in an expeditious fashion. The absence of such a process in the present case appears to have been a significant source of the frustration felt by the appellant and the University. Our experience with the present case suggests further that if the Blundon Centre review supports the appointment of an expert strategist, that the following also be considered. In our view the expert strategist should be able to vet requests for accommodation; be available to students to review existing assessments and accommodations and any changes that may be required; be able to coordinate and facilitate implementation of program of accommodations on an ongoing basis, which may require adjusting accommodations during the course of a student’s progress in a program or within a semester; and assist the student/faculty in defining reasonable accommodation based upon his/her identified need. This person should be a strategist, hired to facilitate resolution to both student/faculty concern for how best to accommodate the growing number of students with learning disabilities in the university environment. It is envisioned as a proactive approach to both accommodation and conflict resolution so that cases such as this may be avoided.

A Final Recommendation (6): The Committee recommends that the University move quickly to expedite the accommodations policy currently under review and developed under the leadership of the Dean of Student Affairs and Services. The current draft policy concerns accommodation of challenges in a broader sense than has been touched on by the AD HOC Committee in the present case, but establishment of the policy should help in raising awareness of learning disability issues and the duty to accommodate such disabilities.

At a meeting held on November 24, 2005, the Executive Committee of Senate reviewed the report of the ad hoc Committee including the six recommendations noted above. The Executive Committee recommended that Senate receive the report and refer each recommendation as follows:

- that Recommendation 1 be communicated to the student.
- that Senate strike an ad hoc Committee to consider Recommendations 3 and 4 in the context of a review of appeals procedures.
- that Senate refer recommendations 2, 5 and 6 to the Dean of Student Affairs and Services for appropriate action.

It was then moved by Dr. Adamec, seconded by Mr. Andrews and carried that Senate receive the report of the ad hoc Committee to Consider Appeal by Student ECS 2004-05: #9 and that each of the ad hoc Committee’s six recommendations be referred as noted above by the Executive Committee of Senate.
49. REMARKS FROM THE CHAIR - QUESTIONS/COMMENTS FROM SENATORS

- On November 20, 2005, the President travelled to Happy Valley/Goose Bay and met with community leaders, aboriginal groups and the community at large to begin a needs assessment to post-secondary education programs in that area. He also met with Dr. Elizabeth Penashue and she accompanied him on a visit to an all Grade School in Sheshatshiu.

- On December 1, 2005, the President addressed the Harris Centre’s Regional Workshop on the Kittiwake Economic Zone in New-Wes-Valley.

- On November 22, 2005, the President travelled to Corner Brook to meet with the senior administrators at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College and to conduct media interviews. In this regard, letters dated December 8, 2005 addressed to Dr. Meisen from the Secretary to the Board of Regents and dated December 12, 2005 addressed to Dr. Meisen from the Sir Wilfred Grenfell College Academic Council were distributed for the information of Senate. Dr. Meisen noted the importance of informing Senate of the issues at hand as well as the importance of developing a process to determine the optimal working and governance relationships between Sir Wilfred Grenfell College and the rest of the University. Following a brief discussion, the President remarked that there are a number of issues that will require more exploration and those which have academic overtones will be brought back to Senate for debate.

In response to a question from Dr. Sharpe concerning the responsibilities to be assigned to the position of Associate Vice-President (Academic), Dr. Campbell responded that this is a new position in addition to the current position of Associate Vice-President (Academic) occupied by Dr. M. Collins. He noted that while a preliminary list of responsibilities include the Harris Centre, Centre for Oil and Gas Studies, Adult/Aboriginal Education and new initiatives, once the new Associate Vice-President is appointed, the division of duties among the Vice-President (Academic) and the two Associate Vice-Presidents (Academic) would be the subject of further discussion.

50. ITEMS FOR INFORMATION

50.1 Faculty of Medicine - Policy on Intimidation and Harassment for Postgraduate Trainees

A memo dated November 28, 2005 was received from the Executive Committee of Senate noting that the Committee had reviewed a document from the Faculty of Medicine entitled “Policy on Intimidation and Harassment for Postgraduate Trainees” and had determined that, because of the nature of this proposed policy, it would be submitted to Senate for information rather than approval. It was also noted that the Faculty of Medicine is in the process of the routing this proposed policy to the Board of Regents for formal approval. A copy of the policy is lodged in the Senate files.
51. ADJOURNMENT

The Chair concluded the meeting by extending best wishes for a peaceful and happy holiday season.

The meeting adjourned at 5:10 p.m.
