The Board - The Board of Regents of the Memorial University of Newfoundland as per Section 22 (1) or the Act.

University – Memorial University of Newfoundland, all locations and predecessors as indicated here.

- 1.2. Unless the context specifies otherwise, wherever used in these guidelines, terms and phrases defined in the Memorial University Act have meaning as follows:

Alumni association (section 22.(2)(b) of the Act) – the collection of all Alumni

Elected by (section 22.(2)(b) of the Act) – elected by and from

2. BOARD OF REGENTS' MEMBERSHIP

The composition of Memorial University's Board of Regents is prescribed in section 22 of the Act as follows:

- The Chancellor of Memorial University;
- President and Vice-Chancellor of Memorial University;
- Provost and Vice-President (Academic) of Memorial University;
- Six (6) elected positions by the alumni association of Memorial University;
- Seventeen (17) members appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council;
- Four (4) members being full-time students of the university, one candidate each recommended by the four student unions; and the
- Chairperson of the Board.

3. TERMS FOR ELECTED MEMBERS

3.1. Term Length

The term length for an elected alumna/us on the Board is three years, as per section 26.(1) of the Act.

3.2. Term Commencement for Elected Members

September 1 of the year elected.

3.3. Term End for Elected Members

August 31 of the last year of term.

3.4. Multiple Terms

Elected members are eligible for re-election after a three-year term, but shall not hold office for more than six consecutive years, as per section 27.(2) of the Act.

3.5. Vacancies

When vacancies occur before the end of the term of the elected member, the candidate with the next highest number of votes in the most recent election is recommended for appointment. The recommended candidate must be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as per section 30.(1) of the Act.

The newly appointed candidate serves the balance of the three-year term created by the vacancy.

4. ELECTORAL OFFICERS

4.1. Election Procedures

AE has the authority and responsibility for conducting alumni elections for the six designated Board of Regents' positions and does so every three years. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Developing and publishing necessary regulations, information and forms;
- Soliciting and confirming nominations;
- Issuing ballots – electronic and otherwise;
- Holding the election(s);
- Tabulating and announcing the results (see section 9.8); and
- Monitoring and reviewing related processes.

4.2. Returning Officer

Executive Director, Office of Development and Alumni Engagement, is the Returning Officer and is responsible for the elections. Decisions specific to the conduct of elections and interpretation of these guidelines will be made by the Executive Director in consultation with the Alumni Elections Committee and when appropriate and necessary, with General Counsel and/or the Board Chair.

4.3. Alumni Elections Committee

The Alumni Elections Committee is responsible for adjudicating on appeals that involve candidate's eligibility and conduct, election outcomes and/or decisions of the Returning Officer.

The Alumni Elections Committee includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Executive Director, Office of Development and Alumni Engagement,

- Executive Director, Office of the Board of Regents;
- Chair of the Board of Regents or delegate;
- Executive Director, Marketing and Communications; and
- Associate Director, Alumni Engagement.

5. CRITERIA FOR CANDIDACY/SELECTION

Board Members elected from the alumni association provide the perspective of the alumni association to the Board. Members of the alumni association are eligible with the exception of:

- Individuals who have been admitted to and are currently registered in a program or course of study that leads to a degree, diploma or certificate of the University at the time of nominations;
- A person who is a member of the teaching staff or employed by the University or of an affiliated college or institution at the time of nominations;
- A person who performs or undertakes to perform a duty or service for the University, at the time of nomination, for which they receive or is entitled to receive remuneration from money of the University; except those appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council under Section 22(2)(c) of the Act;
- Pensioners of the University;
- Individuals who are not in good financial standing with the University, at the time of nomination; and
- Individuals who are in an active and significant conflict of interest at the time of selection. A conflict of interest includes, but is not limited to, having a contract, transaction or other financial arrangement with the University (which does not apply to donations or planned giving); the sale or lease to the University of equipment, materials or services; the provision of a gift or a loan to the University; being actively involved in litigation against the University.

Memorial University, and the Board of Regents participates in the Innovation, Science and Economic Development Canada (ISED) The 50 – 30 Challenge. Memorial University is committed to equity, diversity and inclusion. We encourage nominations from all qualified alumni including women, people of any sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, Indigenous peoples, racialized people and people with disabilities.

If you have any questions or require any accommodation with the nomination process, please reach out to the Office of Development and Alumni Engagement \(ODAE\) for support.

6. THE NOMINATION PROCESS

6.1. Considering Candidacy

The election process is initiated with a university-wide announcement seeking nominations.

The announcement is communicated broadly via the Board of Regents alumni election website, email and social media channels.

The nomination process lasts a minimum of four weeks. Prospective candidates must acquire a total of three letters of support from fellow alumni. Self-nomination letters are not accepted. These letters of support must be included with the Nomination Package by the posted deadline.

For electoral purposes, prospective candidates should use the name that appears on their student/alumni records. Prospective candidates may contact the Office of Development and Alumni Engagement to update alumni records at munalum@mun.ca. In the event a candidate wishes to use an alternate name, the candidate must submit the alternate name in their Nomination Package. AE has the discretion to determine whether the alternate name may be used. The decision is final.

Prospective candidates are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the governance structure of the University and to connect with the Office of the Board of Regents with any questions surrounding the role and duties of being a “Regent”. Prospective candidates are also encouraged to review the Code of Conduct and the travel policies for Board of Regent members.

All information pertaining to deadlines will be posted on the Board of Regents alumni election website and indicated in the Nomination Package. Nominations received after the posted deadline will not be accepted.

6.2. Confirmation of Nominations

AE is responsible for reviewing all Nomination Packages including the criteria for candidacy. AE may refuse a Nomination Package if found to be incomplete or not meeting the criteria posted.

A Nomination Package consists of:

- The completed online Board of Regents Alumni Nomination Form including the following:
 - Personal Information including address, contact details, degree information and current occupation specifics of the nominee;
 - Nominee Biographical/Campaign Statement (250 words or less) to be posted online and should provide an overview of who the nominee is, a statement of intent, their vision to achieve the strategic commitments of the University and the value/ lived experience they would bring to the board;
- A high-resolution photograph of nominee (JPEG/minimum 300 DPI) to be posted online alongside the Nominee’s Biographical/Campaign Statement;
- Three letters of support from alumni (self-nominations will not be accepted)

Nominees must indicate they have read and understand the Introduction to the Board of Regents presentation.

Other items submitted (e.g. CVs, resumes, articles, etc.) will not be included in the nomination package. Once the candidates’ nominations have been confirmed and verified by AE, the candidates are notified immediately.

6.3. Acclamation

At the close of the nomination period, if the number of candidates nominated and confirmed is equal to or less than the Board positions available for election, the candidates shall be declared elected by acclamation and no ballot is necessary.

If, at nomination deadline the number of candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the Returning Officer may, at their discretion, extend the deadline for nominations for those vacancies, or may organize a separate by-election to fill the remaining vacancies.

6.4. Withdrawing Nomination

A person nominated as a candidate in the election may withdraw their nomination by submitting a signed statement to AE.

7. THE CAMPAIGN PROCESS

7.1. Publication of Candidates' Names

The campaign process begins with a university-wide announcement naming the candidates on the Board of Regents alumni election website and communicated broadly.

7.2. Candidate Assistance

The Board of Regents alumni election website is used for the posting of candidates submitted Biographical/Campaign Statement and photo. For complete description of these items, please see section 6.2. Formatting specifications and other details pertaining to these items can be found in the candidate Nomination Package.

7.3. Campaign Period

A candidate may begin campaigning only after AE has issued official notification of the campaign start. Campaigning is not permitted prior to the Proclamation. The voting period is normally 30 calendar days.

8. CANDIDATE CONDUCT DURING THE CAMPAIGN PROCESS

8.1. General Standard of Conduct

All candidates shall conduct themselves and their activities in a manner that the University deems to be reasonable and fair and which are consistent with the Vision, Mission, and Values of Memorial University and the Board Code of Conduct, which includes treating each other with respect and fairness, being responsible, and being honest. Candidates who are successful in becoming a Regent must also adhere to the same standards.

8.2. Campaign Material Protocol

Candidates must represent themselves accurately regarding their accomplishments, positions held, or any other data intended to inform voters.

8.3. Freedom to Campaign

All candidates have an opportunity to campaign and must adhere to local campaign by-laws. No candidate, individual, or campaign group can perform or condone the acts of destroying, defacing, moving, covering, removing or altering signs, banners, or any form of publicity, physical or electronic, that is installed, posted or communicated by other candidates or their supporters.

8.4. Use of Campaign Signage

If candidates opt to use signage, the expectation is that regional guidelines are followed.

8.5. Use of Social Media and Networking Tools

The use, directly by candidates or by others on behalf of candidates, of address lists, listservs, email contacts and distribution lists that are owned and/or operated by Memorial University, to broadcast or send campaigning messages, is not permitted. Candidates may use their own personal contact lists and social media channels and may share information or tag their posts to Memorial social media channels. Candidates may not post to Memorial social media sites as owners/administrators of those sites, or request endorsement by the owners/administrators of those sites.

8.6 Decisions Regarding Inappropriate Activity

The Returning Officer, and when required the Alumni Elections Committee, decides on a case-by-case basis whether an activity is inappropriate and what applicable penalty, up to and including disqualification of candidacy. Consideration will be given to the seriousness of the activity and whether it is a first or subsequent violation.

Possible penalties include but are not limited to:

8.6.1. Public correction of false statements to be made at the candidate's expense, if practical.

8.6.2. Public written retractions/apologies at the candidate's expense, if practical.

8.6.3. Removal of signs, banners, or any form of publicity, physical or electronic, that is installed, posted, or made public needs to be retracted, deleted, removed at the expense of the candidate

8.6.4. Overturning the final Election results for the candidate(s) involved and filling the vacancy as per section 3.5 above.

9. VOTING

9.1. Method of Communicating Election Information

Notification of election dates and voting procedures for alumni will be posted on the Board of Regents alumni election website and promoted via email and social media channels as the elections near.

9.2. Voting Period

The voting period will be determined by the Alumni Elections Committee; it is normally a minimum of four weeks.

9.3. Method of Voting

The preferred method of voting will be online. Upon request voting accommodations can be made as required. Voters looking for accommodation should contact ODAE via email munalum@mun.ca

9.4. Eligibility to Vote

All Alumni, defined herein, are eligible to vote. AE will confirm the eligibility through a review of Memorial University records. Each alumna/us is permitted to cast a maximum of six votes on the ballot, and only one vote for any candidate. Alumni may submit only one ballot.

9.5. Minimum Voter Turnout

No minimum voter turnout is required to validate an election.

9.6. Tabulation of Results

All online tabulations are conducted under the direction of the Returning Officer. The tabulations are ranked from the highest to the lowest in the number of votes received. The six (6) candidates with the highest number of votes and who accept the position are considered the elected candidates to the Board of Regents.

9.7. Ties

In the case of a tie for the sixth place, the Returning Officer decides the outcome by lot and in the presence of a representative from the Office of General Counsel at Memorial University.

9.8. Availability of election results

The number of votes for candidates will be publicly available after the tabulations are completed and decisions made on any appeals that may be presented to the Returning Officer (see section 10 below).

10. APPEALING DECISION OF THE RETURNING OFFICER

10.1. Submitting an Appeal

Candidates have the right to appeal a decision of the Returning Officer unless otherwise indicated in this document. Any such appeal requires written documentation outlining the reason(s) for the appeal, along with relevant supporting documentation. If the Election is still underway, the document and supporting information shall be sent to the Alumni Election Committee within 24 hours of formal notification of the appeal. If the Election has concluded the document should be sent to the Committee within 10 working days of the last voting day.

10.2. Decision of the Alumni Election Committee

An Alumni Election Committee hearing shall be scheduled within 10 working days of receiving the written appeal, if the Election has concluded. If the Election is in progress the hearing shall be convened within 24 hours of receiving the appeal. The appellant will be permitted to make oral representations during the hearing.

All decisions made by the Alumni Election Committee are final and not subject to further appeal. Written decisions will be sent to the appellant with a copy to the Board Chair.

11. APPEALING DECISION OF CANDIDATES ELECTION RESULTS

11.1. Submitting an Appeal

Candidates have the right to appeal a decision of the election results unless otherwise indicated in this document. Any such appeal requires written documentation outlining the reason(s) for the appeal, along with relevant supporting documentation. The document and supporting information shall be sent to the Alumni Election Committee within 72 hours of formal notification of his/her election results.

11.2. Decision of the Alumni Election Committee

An Alumni Election Committee hearing shall be scheduled within five working days of receiving the written appeal. The appellant will be permitted to make oral representations during the hearing. All decisions made by the Alumni Election Committee are final and not subject to further appeal.

Written decisions will be sent to the appellant with a copy to the Board Chair.
