MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY OF NEWFOUNDLAND
DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

Teaching Term Position

The Department of Chemistry, Memorial University, Newfoundland and Labrador, invites applications for a three-year teaching term position at the rank of Teaching Assistant Professor effective January 1, 2021, subject to budgetary approval. The successful candidate’s primary responsibility will be to teach undergraduate courses at both the introductory and senior (in the direct discipline of the candidate) levels, along with normal administrative responsibilities. Research is not part of the required duties for this position.

The successful candidate is required to have a Ph.D. degree in Chemistry or equivalent and demonstrated aptitude for teaching. Salary will reflect qualifications and experience in accordance with the Collective Agreement governing faculty at Memorial University of Newfoundland.

The Chemistry Department has 19 tenured/tenure track faculty and 1 teaching term faculty, along with 15 permanent laboratory instructors/instructional assistants and several technical/administrative staff supporting our graduate and undergraduate programs. The Department offers B.Sc., M.Sc. and Ph.D. programs in Chemistry, Biological Chemistry and Computational Chemistry. Interested candidates are invited to review the Chemistry Department home page at http://www.mun.ca/chem for further information.

Eligible applicants should send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, a teaching portfolio (interests, experience, and philosophy), and the names and contact information (including e-mail addresses) of three referees to: Dr. Sunil V. Pansare, Professor and Head, chemhead@mun.ca

Deadline for receipt of applications is Friday, September 11, 2020.

Memorial University is committed to employment equity and diversity and encourages applications from all qualified candidates, including women; people of any sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression; Indigenous peoples; visible minorities, and racialized people; and people with disabilities. As part of Memorial University’s commitment to employment equity, all applicants are invited to identify themselves as a member of a target group(s) as appropriate. Applicants cannot be considered as a member of a target group(s) unless they complete an employment equity survey. If you do not receive a survey or have any questions, please contact equity@mun.ca. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian Citizens and Permanent Residents will be given priority.

Memorial University is the largest university in Atlantic Canada. We acknowledge that the lands on which Memorial University’s campuses are situated are in the traditional territories of diverse Indigenous groups, and we acknowledge with respect the diverse histories and cultures of the Beothuk, Mi’kmaq, Innu, and Inuit of this province. As the province’s only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the education and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador. Offering diverse undergraduate and graduate programs to almost 18,000 students, Memorial provides a distinctive and stimulating environment for learning in St. John’s, a very safe, friendly city with great historic charm, a vibrant cultural life, and easy access to a wide range of outdoor activities.