CONVOCATION

Spring, 2017

CORNER BROOK

O CANADA

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.

*God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.*

O Canada! Terre de nos aïeux
Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!
Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,
Il sait porter la croix!
Ton histoire est une épopée
Des plus brillants exploits!

*Et ta valeur, de foi trempée
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.
Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.*

ODE TO NEWFOUNDLAND

When sun rays crown thy pine-clad hills,
And Summer spreads her hand,
When silvern voices tune thy rills,
We love thee smiling land.
We love thee, we love thee,
We love thee, smiling land.

When spreads thy cloak of shimm'ring white,
At Winter's stern command,
Through shortened day and starlit night,
We love thee, frozen land.
We love thee, we love thee,
We love thee, frozen land.

When blinding storm gusts fret thy shore,
And wild waves lash thy strand,
Through spindrift swirl and tempest roar,
We love thee, wind-swept land.
We love thee, we love thee,
We love thee, wind-swept land.

As loved our fathers, so we love,
Where once they stood we stand.
Their prayers we raise to Heaven above:
God guard thee, Newfoundland!
God guard thee, God guard thee,
God guard thee, Newfoundland.

HONORARY DEGREES

Candidates for honorary degrees may be nominated by any member of the community to the Senate Committee on Honorary Degrees and Ceremonial which, after due consideration, forwards its recommendations to Senate for approval.

To be considered for an honorary degree, candidates must normally have been benefactors of the university, or persons who have achieved eminence in learning or in the arts, or those who have otherwise distinguished themselves by outstanding public service.

FRANK JOSEPH HAYDEN

Professor emeritus at McMaster University, Dr. Frank Hayden served as the director of the School of Physical Education and Athletics at McMaster from 1975 to 1981.

He has a special interest in sport and fitness programs for children, particularly for those with an intellectual disability. In 1964 he proposed a national program of sport training and competition for persons with intellectual disabilities.

In 1968 he designed, organized and directed a games in Chicago for 1,000 athletes from 26 states and Canada and named it the Chicago Special Olympics. Within two years Special Olympics organizations were established in all 50 states.

Among his many honours, Dr. Hayden received la Medaille de Vermeil de la Ville de Paris from the mayor of Paris "for significant contributions to the quality of life of the mentally handicapped citizens of Paris over a period of 13 years."

In 2000 Dr. Hayden was made an officer of the Order of Canada. In 2016 he was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame.

Dr. Frank Hayden will be awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree at the 7:30 p.m. session of convocation in Corner Brook.

CALVIN A. WHITE

Mi'kmaw, and born and raised in Flat Bay, N.L., Calvin White is one of the founders of the Aboriginal revival in Newfoundland and Labrador.

In the 1960s he helped organize Aboriginal families in the province, including those in Conne River and Labrador, to form the Native Association of Newfoundland and Labrador, which later became the Federation of Newfoundland Indians (FNI).

Mr. White is one of the original petitioners in the 1989 legal action brought by the FNI against the federal government, which eventually resulted in the agreement to form the Qalipu Mi'kmaq First Nation.

Mr. White helped organize the first Aboriginal powwow in Bay St. George, today one of the largest powwows in Atlantic Canada.

Mr. White received the Commemorative Medal for the 125th Anniversary of the Confederation of Canada in 1993 and the Order of Newfoundland and Labrador in 2015. He was honoured with the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award from Ulnooweg Development Group in 2008.

Elder Calvin White will be awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree at the 10 a.m. session of convocation in Corner Brook.

ENGAGEMENT AWARDS

The Vice-President (Grenfell Campus) Engagement Awards were established by the Grenfell Office of Engagement (GO Engagement) to recognize faculty, staff and students who are engaged in their community, who have a demonstrated knowledge of the principles of engagement, who encourage others to become engaged, who partner with community organizations and who demonstrate strong leadership and teamwork skills.

The following awards are being presented:

Vice-President (Grenfell Campus) Engagement Award for faculty:
Ingrid Mary Percy, School of Fine Arts, Visual Arts

Vice-President (Grenfell Campus) Engagement Award for staff:
Kelly Anne Butler, Student Services, Aboriginal Affairs

Vice-President (Grenfell Campus) Engagement Award for students:
Bethany Bernier, School of Arts and Social Science, Psychology

GRENFELL TEACHING AWARD

This award recognizes excellence in teaching, teaching innovation and teaching leadership.

This year's recipient, Dr. Kelly Vodden, is commended for her commitment to her students, her research and the betterment of the province in which she resides.

Dr. Vodden has been with the Environmental Policy Institute at Grenfell Campus since the inception of the master of arts in environmental policy. She has been instrumental in the development of many courses, including those that take students out of the classroom and into the communities that they are studying, thereby aligning student research with community needs.

Dr. Vodden values learning in safe, welcoming environments and offers her students challenging yet supportive learning opportunities. She is lauded for her ability to facilitate learning through the respectful sharing of unique or opposing opinions, and for her genuine concern for the overall success of her students. Dr. Vodden's students feel respected, valued and motivated to succeed.

Her colleagues recognize her innovative approaches to graduate teaching and her commitment to overcome gaps in knowledge through the implementation of appropriate strategies.

Dr. Vodden has an international reputation as a leader of research and scholarship relating to rural development, local governance and community, and environmental sustainability. As one collaborator said, in terms of Memorial's public engagement mandate, she is nothing less than a "superstar."

She is cross-appointed with the Department of Geography, St. John's campus, and is an adjunct professor with the University of Prince Edward Island. Dr. Vodden holds a B.A. from the University of Western Ontario and M.A. and Ph.D. from Simon Fraser University.

She is also the past recipient of the Memorial University of Newfoundland Students' Union award for Excellence in Teaching and Outstanding Contribution to Student Life and the Leslie Harris Award for Excellence in Regional Development.

The academic dress for matriculated undergraduates of the university shall be similar to the scholar's gown of the University of Oxford. It shall be worn whenever the president so directs.

The gowns of the Bachelors shall be of black stuff. The gowns of the Masters shall be of black stuff or silk. The gowns of the Doctors shall be of fine scarlet cloth or silk, or of black stuff or silk.

The pattern of the Bachelor's gown shall be similar to that of the Oxford Bachelor's gown. The pattern of the Master's gown and the Doctor's black gown shall be similar to that of the Oxford Master's gown, except that the Doctor's gown shall have an edging of black silk braid at the opening of the sleeve. The Doctor's scarlet gown shall be similar to that of the Oxford Doctor of Divinity's gown. The hoods of the Bachelors shall be made of black stuff, the hoods of the Masters of black silk, and the hoods of the Doctors of scarlet silk. They shall be full in shape and lined with the university colours of claret and white. The hoods of the Bachelors shall be trimmed with white fur, the tippets with velvet in the colours distinctive of the faculty or degree. The hoods and tippets of the Masters shall be edged with velvet in the colours distinctive of the faculty or degree. The hoods and tippets of the Doctors shall be edged with silk in the colours distinctive of the faculty or degree; however, the hood of the Doctor of Philosophy shall be of claret silk, lined and edged with claret silk.

The University hood, designed to be worn by representatives of Memorial who hold a degree and are participating in official ceremonies, shall be made of black stuff and lined and edged with claret and white silk.

The caps of Bachelors and Masters shall be black and of the square shape, with black tassel. The caps of the Doctors shall be similar to the Oxford Doctor's bonnet.

The academic dress for the Officers of the University shall be as follows:

- Chancellor – a silk gown heavily embroidered with gold braid
- Vice-Chancellor – a silk gown embroidered with gold braid
- Pro Vice-Chancellor – a silk gown embroidered with gold braid
- University Registrar and other Officers of the University – gowns of a pattern approved by Senate

The distinctive colours for the degrees shall be:

In June of 1950 Memorial University held its first Convocation, which was a fairly simple affair. Led by Engineering professor Dr. Jack Facey (who would later perform the role of Convocation marshal for 46 years), the students and faculty moved from the Parade Street campus across to St. Patrick's Hall School for the conferring of undergraduate degrees. The university presented its first graduate degrees in May 1956 and its first honorary degree in May 1960.

The ceremony for that first honorary degree, presented to Monnie Mansfield, who had been Memorial's registrar for 30 years, served as a dress rehearsal for the most elaborate Convocation the university has ever held – that for the opening of the Elizabeth Avenue campus in October 1961. Overseeing the arrangements were Dr. Facey as the marshal of Convocation, responsible for the organization, direction and decorum of the occasion, and Dr. G.M. Story as the public orator, responsible for the delivery of the orations about the honorary graduands, a special feature of Memorial's Convocations. Nineteen honorary degrees were conferred on a galaxy of dignitaries local, national and international. That day the public orator and his deputy each had to deliver as many as 10 orations, each a concise but rhetorically lively account of the rationale for conferring the degree.

From 1961 to 1968 Convocation was held in the gymnasium of the Physical Education Building. With the opening of the St. John's Arts and Culture Centre, Memorial in effect acquired a new Convocation hall, which became the regular site of the ceremonies after 1970. Designed partially on the ideas of then-Premier Joseph Smallwood, the back of the stage with its descending staircase was developed specifically for Memorial's Convocation. Fall Convocation was inaugurated in 1970 to accommodate increasing numbers of graduates and to support the three-semester academic calendar.

In May 1992, 23 graduates received degrees in the first regular session of Convocation held at Sir Wilfred Grenfell College, Memorial's Corner Brook campus (now Grenfell Campus).

The ceremonial trappings of Convocation began to be developed in the early 1960s. Our academic robes are based on those of Oxford University. The silver mace – the symbol of the university's authority and the presence of which signals the official opening of Convocation – and the marshals' staves were donated by Chancellor Lord Thomson in 1961. The original chancellor's chair and a lectern were presented in 1963 by then-Lieutenant Governor Campbell Macpherson. Other complementary birch wood furniture pieces were subsequently commissioned from the St. John's firm of Clarmanis and Son Ltd.; the chairs bear the university's coat of arms, hand carved and painted bas-relief. The signing table, gift of the former marshal Dr. Jack Facey, was added in 1996.

In 2002 plans were made to create a second Convocation furniture suite so that a complete set would permanently reside at each of the St. John's and Corner Brook campuses. The design of the new suite, intended to reflect the culture and traditions of the province, was undertaken by retired Memorial University designer Ian Stewart; Paterson Woodworking of Upper Amherst Cove was commissioned to construct the set. The first piece completed in this suite, a black walnut Convocation table with a fish-splitting table motif, was presented by then-Lieutenant Governor Edward Roberts in 2003. The kneeler was donated in 2005 by honorary graduate Alan Perry. Hon. Dr. Roberts and his brother Douglas Roberts sponsored the signing table and bench, completed in 2005, as well as the chancellor's chair and the four companion chairs, which were completed in 2006. They also donated the two speaker's lecterns, which were completed in 2007. The Roberts' contributions to the suite of furniture were undertaken in memory of their father, Dr. Harry D. Roberts, a graduate of Memorial University College ('31), an honorary graduate of Memorial University and for many years a member of the Board of Regents.

In 2009, on the occasion of the 100th regular session of Convocation, composer and retired professor of classics at Grenfell Campus, Dr. Michael Parker, was commissioned to create a special suite of music for Convocation ceremonies. The suite premiered at Spring Convocation 2009 and is dedicated to the late Ferriss Hodgett, vice-principal of Grenfell Campus, 1975-1992.

The desire to share the ceremonies beyond the audience seated in the Convocation hall led to television coverage of the ceremonies beginning in the 1970s and, more recently, webcasting (by the university's Centre for Innovation in Teaching and Learning unit) which virtually brings the ceremony to the whole world via the university website at www.mun.ca. Other university units that play a role in Convocation include the Office of the Registrar and the School of Graduate Studies, which ensure that students have completed their programs and are certified for their degrees; the Division of Marketing and Communications, which coordinates the logistics of this special event and assists the graduands with preparations for the ceremony and the celebrations surrounding it; and the Office of Alumni Affairs, which welcomes graduates into the Memorial University Alumni Association.

Convocation has been a day of pride for thousands of students and more than 500 honorary graduates, nearing 90,000 alumni members worldwide. While our Convocation, as a ceremonial occasion, has grown from the practices and procedures of older universities, after more than half a century it has become a distinctive event for all who attend, be they distinguished guests or faculty, honorary graduates or our students who are, as they should be, the focus of the event.

WW100

MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY

MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY COLLEGE was founded in 1925 as a living memorial to the men and women who lost their lives on active service during the First World War—“that in freedom of learning their cause and sacrifice might not be forgotten.” In recognition of this unique origin and to mark the 2014–19 centenary of the First World War, Memorial University has established the WW100 program.

The WW100 graphic features a stylized blue forget-me-not flower which was the traditional flower of remembrance in Newfoundland and Labrador as early as 1917. The centre of the forget-me-not is coloured claret, one of the university’s official colours which was selected to honour the Royal Newfoundland Regiment. The claret centre is also symbolic of the poppy which is a commemorative image in many countries. For more information on the WW100 program and the university’s activities, please visit www.mun.ca/ww100.
