

Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science
Co-operative Education

PAUL S. BATSTONE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

This scholarship was established in memory of Paul S. Batstone who spent 20 years promoting co-operative education at Memorial University of Newfoundland and was a co-ordinator in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science until his death in 2003. Valued at a portion of the income on the investment, it will be awarded to a senior student completing work term 3 or 4 during the Spring work term who has demonstrated a high level of commitment to Engineering Co-operative Education and has made a significant contribution to their employer in the past work term. The recipient must meet the minimum academic requirements for a scholarship as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland. This scholarship will be awarded by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science with a nomination from the student's employer and input from the Engineering Co-operative Education Office.

If you feel that your student warrants consideration for this scholarship, complete the nomination below.

- Did the student exceed your expectations?
- Did the student's work result in time/money saving to the company?
- Comment on student's working relationship with staff/clients etc.
- Was the student a good ambassador for the co-op program and the University?
- Other relevant information.

Student's name: _____

Supervisor's name: _____

Supervisor's signature: _____

Company: _____