

Curriculum Vitae (January 2026)

Name: Sanjay Chandra Roy
Nationality: Bangladeshi
Country of residency:
Bangladesh
Address: Assistant Professor, Dept. of Economics, University of Chittagong
E-mail: scroy@mun.ca Cellphone: +8801719556490

Education History

Degree	University
MA in Economics	Department of Economics, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Canada. Fall-2022 to till.
MSS in Economics (1 year)	Department of Economics, University of Chittagong, Bangladesh.
BSS in Economics (4 year)	Department of Economics, University of Chittagong, Bangladesh.

Employment History

Before coming MUN, I worked as a faculty member in the department of Economics at University of Chittagong, Bangladesh. I was involved there in teaching, exam grading, classroom management and research.

Membership

1. Member of local Organization Committee for Statistical Society of Canada (CSSC) annual meeting 2024
2. Bangladesh Economic Association; life member
3. Canadian Economic Association, student member

Scholarship

1. For good score in MSS

Languages

1. Bengali (native)
2. English (fluent)

Publications

NB: Consider my contribution equally with my co-authors, if any work is jointly published or completed

Published article(s)	Roy, S. C., &amp; Roy, M. (2015). Tourism in Bangladesh: Present status and future prospects. International Journal of Management Science and Business Administration, 1(8), 53-61. Roy, S. C., &amp; Saha, P. K. (2015). Customer Perception of Banking Service Quality: A Study on Jamuna Bank Limited in Sylhet City. European Journal of Business and Management, 7(20), 1-7. Majumder, S. C., &amp; Roy, S. C. (2012). Socio-economic conditions of tea plantation workers in Bangladesh: A case study on Sreemongal. Indian Journal of Applied Research, 1(10), 37-40.
Term paper(s)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Impact of COVID-19 on remittance inflows in Bangladesh: An RDiT (Regression Discontinuity in Time) approach</li> <li>2. Electricity production, forestry and economic growth impact on carbon footprint in BRICS: An Empirical Analysis</li> <li>3. Impact of Blue Economy Factors on Economic Growth: Fresh Panel Evidence from Bangladesh, Myanmar, and India</li> </ol>
Conference paper	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Impact of Reduction in Arable Land on Food Security in Bangladesh [organized by Bangladesh Economic Association at Bangladesh Agricultural University on 29th July 2023]</li> </ol>

Teaching Experience

Various courses like Agricultural Economics, Principles of Macroeconomics, Statistics for Economists I offered at the undergraduate level.

Computer Skills

- i) Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- ii) STATA software
- iii) LaTeX (Learning in a graduate seminar course)

Internal Service

i) I worked for 3 years as a house tutor at a students' hall at the University of Chittagong to look after the academic and non-academic activities of students

Interests

- i) Writing in national Bengali newspapers