

The Department of Economics

Visiting Speaker Series

“Perspectives on Well-being in Newfoundland and Labrador.”

Dr. Andrew Sharpe

(Centre for the Study of Living Standards (CSLS))

Friday, May 3, 2:30 – 4:00 p.m.

Chemistry Building 3033

Dr. Sharpe is currently the Executive Director of the Ottawa-based Centre for the Study of Living Standards (CSLS). He has held a variety of earlier positions, including Head of Research at the Canadian Labour Market and Productivity Centre and Chief, Business Sector Analysis at the Department of Finance. He holds a M.A. and Ph.D in economics from McGill University, a maitrise in urban geography from the Université de Paris-Sorbonne, and a B.A. from the University of Toronto. He is also founder and Editor of the International Productivity Monitor, co-developer (with Lars Osberg) of the composite Index of Economic Well-being, and a consultant to the World Bank on labor market issues.

Presented by the Department of Economics.

Funding provided by the President’s “Support for Scholarship in the Arts at Memorial” Program.