

Grenfell International Exchange Travel Award

This award was established by Dr. Michael Newton, a professor emeritus of Religion and Environmental Studies at Grenfell Campus. Valued at a minimum of $1,000 annually, the award will be granted to an undergraduate student at Memorial University of Newfoundland's Grenfell Campus who wishes to gain international experience by taking part in an international student exchange partnership program offered through the University. The recipient must be beyond their first year of study, meet the minimum academic requirements for an award as defined by the University and be recommended by faculty in their area of study. The award will be granted by the Senate Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships, Bursaries and Awards on the recommendation of the Scholarship Committee at Grenfell Campus in consultation with faculty.

Name: _____

Student Number: _____

Address: _____

Are you beyond your first year of studies?

Have you included a letter of recommendation from the faculty in your area of study?

Have you been accepted into an international exchange program through Grenfell Campus Registrar's Office? Where will you be studying and in what academic semester?

In 250 words, describe how international study will benefit you.

Submit completed application to gcstudentservices@mun.ca

