PROMISSORY NOTE

I promise to pay Memorial University of Newfoundland (herein called "the University"), the amount of loan approved on or before the due date. Payment may be made either in one lump sum or in installments until such time as the loan is repaid. No interest will be charged until the due date of this loan, after which I agree to pay the outstanding principal amount of the loan together with interest at the current commercial rate. Ensuring repayment of this loan within the current semester is entirely my responsibility.

AND I FURTHER AGREE:

- 1. That all statements in this application for a University Short-term Loan are true and complete to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, and were made for the purpose of obtaining such Loan, and such application includes the express representation that I am not being sued, that no judgement is outstanding against me, that the University may obtain such further information as it may obtain such further information as it may require and for such purpose may make inquiries of others.
- 2. That the University reserves the right to withhold any, and all, information of my academic record at the University until such time as my account is paid in full.
- 3. That this contract will be considered null and void if any statement contained herein is found to be false or incorrect, and this Loan will thereupon be immediately due and payable.
- 4. If at any time during the semester, I should drop one or more courses, the amount of any refund payable to me will be applied against any Short-Term Loan(s) owing.
- 5. If at any time during the semester, I should withdraw from Memorial University, the balance of any Short-Term Loan(s) owing will become due immediately, and the amount of any refund payable to me will be applied against such Short-Term Loan(s) owing.
- 6. That I have read and fully understand the contents of this Promissory Note.
