

YOUR OHS COMMITTEE IS HERE FOR YOU

HAVE YOU CONTACTED YOUR OHS COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVE LATELY?

An occupational health and safety (OHS) committee consists of labour and management representatives who meet on a regular basis to resolve health and safety issues.

OHS committee activities at Memorial include:

- Inspect the workplace for hazards.
- Follow-up on hazard reports and recommend corrective action.
- Consult with professional and technical experts.
- Participate in resolving workplace refusals.
- Monitor effectiveness of safety programs and procedures.

There is an OHS committee that represents each employee at Memorial. There is also a University Health and Safety Committee that responds to issues raised by OHS committees at Memorial. Get involved and take on a leading role in promoting health and safety.
