

NAOSH WEEK

CELEBRATE COOPERATION AND COMMITMENT OF ALL HEALTH AND SAFETY PARTNERS

North American Occupational Safety and Health (NAOSH) week is celebrated in Canada, the USA and Mexico every year.

The main goals of NAOSH week are to:

- Reduce workplace injuries and illness.
- Highlight the benefits of investment in occupational health and safety.
- Raise awareness of the role and contribution of safety and health professionals.

This continent-wide event is an excellent opportunity to strengthen commitment to workplace health and safety.
