School of Human Kinetics and Recreation

LECTURER
Teaching Term Appointment (eight-month contract)

Memorial University is the largest university in Atlantic Canada. As the province’s only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the education and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador. Offering diverse undergraduate and graduate programs to almost 18,000 undergraduate students, Memorial provides a distinctive and stimulating environment for learning in St. John’s, a safe friendly city with great historic charm, a vibrant cultural life and easy access to a wide range of outdoor activities.

The School of Human Kinetics and Recreation offers four undergraduate programs: Bachelor of Kinesiology (BKIN), Bachelor of Physical Education (BPE), Bachelor of Recreation (BREC) and a Bachelor of Human Kinetics and Recreation Co-operative degree (BHKRC). The new BHKRC is a four-year interdisciplinary program, offering students a progressive education in the field with experiential learning. The School was the first in Canada to offer a Master of Physical Education in an online format and has a growing Master of Science in Kinesiology program.

Applications are invited from qualified individuals for an eight-month teaching term appointment at the level of Lecturer commencing September 3, 2019.

DUTIES: The successful applicant will be expected to teach a series of undergraduate (online and on-campus) courses, and participate in other educational, and professional activities.

QUALIFICATIONS: A minimum of five years of teaching experience in K – 12 schools is essential. Prior university teaching experience and a track record that demonstrates excellence in teaching is an asset. Preference will be given to those who have completed their Master’s Degree in Physical Education or a related area, and have the ability to teach in one or more of the following areas: curriculum, movement concepts, health and wellness, and growth and development.

Deadline for applications is March 29, 2019; review of applications will continue until the position is filled. A curriculum vitae, teaching interests, evidence of teaching competence, and the names of three references should accompany letters of application and be sent to:
