

Bonfire Bibliography

PAB Articles-

Johnson, M. (1999). Bonfire Night: Childhood Reminiscences of Catalina. In Downhomer (Vol. 12(3), pp. 66).

Walters, H. (2003). Gnat, Do You Mind...Vikings? Story About Bonfire Night. In Downhomer (Vol. 16 (6), pp. 131-134).

Goudie Parsons, M. (2008). Bonfire Night On Birch Island: Remissness of Guy Fawkes Night Celebrations. In Downhomer (Vol. 32(2), pp. 8-11).

Adams-Haldenby, L. (2000). Bonfire Night: Reminiscences at Milton. In Downhomer (Vol. 13(6), pp. 64-65).

Bibliography for Bonfire Night Materials Found at the Centre for Newfoundland Studies- St. John's, NL

Found under "Social Life & Customs- Bonfires/ Guy Fawkes Night

Unknown. (2005). Safety Tips Offered for Bonfire Night. In The Telegram ( November 4th, pp. A3). St. John's, Newfoundland: Metro/Provincial News.

The Canadian Press. (2005). A Dying Tradition? Newfoundland Guy Fawkes Bonfires Petering Out. In The Telegram (November 6th, pp. 5). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Glover, S. (2005). Public Asked to Keep Environment In Mind on Guy Fawkes Night. In Week In Review (NLIS2: November 4th) St. John's, Newfoundland: Government of Newfoundland and Labrador Press.

Hall, J. (1998). Where A Guy is Still A Guy: It's Fawkes Day, and Firefighters Are Expecting A Hot Time. In The Globe and Mail (November 5th, pp. 2).

Hilliard, W. (2001). Pre-bonfire Night Keeps Firefighters Hopping. The Telegram (November 5th, p. A2). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Meaney, K. (1995). Fawkes Tough On Firefighters. The Telegram (November 6th, pp. 1). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Gibbons, J. (1997). Photo: Hot Spot. The Telegram (November 6th, pp. 1.) St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Barron, T. (1996). City Douses Hopes For Bonfire. The Telegram (Oct 29th, pp. 1-2). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Bennett, B. (1997). Fewer Sparks From Guy Fawkes Night. The Telegram (November 6th, pp. 2). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Edwards Stacey, J. (1994). Fawkes Night Burns Bright. The Telegram (November 6th, pp. 1). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Hurley, C. (2006). Guy Fawkes Tradition to be Celebrated Over Two Nights. The Western Star (November 4th, pp. 5). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Bennett, B. (1996). Ban Won't Stop Guy Fawkes Bonfires. The Telegram (October 31st, pp. 4). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Unknown. (2005). Bonfire Tradition Appears to be Fading in Province. The Western Star (November 7th, pp. 2). Corner Brook, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Westcott, C. (1992). Council Douses Bonfires. The Telegram (October 20th, pp.1). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Hiscock, Phillip. (1990). Burning Traditions: Those 'Green' and 'Orange' Bonfires. The Newfoundland Signal (June 24th-30th, pp. 9).

Hilliard, W. (2002). Fewer Bonfire Night Blazes Mark 400-Year-Old Tradition: Close Calls at Provincial Depot, On Shea Heights. The Telegram (November 6th, pp. A1). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Simms, G. (2009). Torbay Sets Fire to The Night In The Name of Tradition. The Telegram (November 6th, pp. A7). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Lieb, R. (2009). Ramea Celebrates Bonfire Night. The Gulf News (November 16th, pp.11). Channel-Port Aux Basques, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

White, D. (2009). Bonfire Night Still A Fun Time And A Good Tradition In Newfoundland. The Western Star (November 5th, p. 4). Corner Brook, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Barron, T. (2001). Bomb Disposal Unit Has A Blast With Guy Fawkes. The Telegram (January 11th, pp. 3). St. John's, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.

Hinchliffe, A. (2010). Longtime Tradition Continues to Burn Brightly. The Gulf News (November 15th, pp. A8). Channel-Port Aux Basques, Newfoundland: Transcontinental.