

APPLICATION FOR A SOCIAL INSURANCE NUMBER INFORMATION GUIDE FOR APPLICANTS

IMPORTANT NOTICE: If you apply in-person at a Service Canada Centre, this application form is not required.

DID YOU KNOW?

- * There is no fee to apply for a Social Insurance Number (SIN).
- * You must provide original and valid identity documents to apply for a SIN; photocopies are not accepted.

How to apply

Online

Service Canada has made it easy and secure for you to apply for a SIN or to amend your SIN record online.

You are encouraged to apply online by visiting our website at Social Insurance Number. Simply refer to the “Required documents” section to determine which documents you must provide.

If everything is in order, you will receive a letter with your SIN by mail within 10 business days from the date the application is received. If more than 15 business days have passed and you would like to determine the status of your application, contact the SIN program.

If you wish to have the SIN confirmation letter mailed to an address other than your own, you must apply by mail.

By Mail

To apply by mail, simply follow Steps 1 to 3 of this application form and provide your original and valid identity documents to the Social Insurance Registration office.

If everything is in order, you will receive a letter with your SIN by mail within 20 business days from the date the application is received. If more than 25 business days have passed and you would like to determine the status of your application, contact the SIN program.

In-Person

You are encouraged to apply either online or by mail but if you still wish to apply in-person, you may do so by gathering the documents you need and taking them to the nearest Service Canada Centre. Simply refer to the “Required documents” section of our website, or refer to Step 1 of this form to determine which documents you must provide.

If everything is in order, you will obtain your SIN at the time of your visit. To find the nearest Service Canada Centre, visit our website at Find a Service Canada Office or call 1-800-O-CANADA (1-800-622-6232).

IMPORTANT NOTICE: If you apply in-person at a Service Canada Centre, this application form is not required.

Step 1 - Gather the original identity documents required

You must provide original and valid primary identity documents to prove your identity and legal status in Canada. Photocopies are not accepted.

Applying online

If you are applying online, please visit our website at Social Insurance Number to determine what documents you must provide.

Applying by mail

If you are applying by mail, you must provide the following original documents:

- an original and valid primary identity document;
- a completed, signed and dated SIN application form. If you are unable to print the application form, you can order one by phone at:
 - 1-866-274-6627 (toll-free number);
 - if outside Canada, at 1-506-548-7961 (long-distance charges will apply).
- an original and valid supporting document (only applicable if the name on any document provided is different from the name on the SIN application).

Applying in-person

If you are applying by in-person, you must provide the following original documents:

- an original and valid primary identity document;
- an original and valid secondary identity document (if you have reached the age of majority in your province or territory of residence);
- an original and valid supporting document (only applicable if the name on any document provided is different from the name on the SIN application).

If you are a parent, legal guardian or legal representative applying on behalf of the applicant, you must provide additional documents; refer to the list provided below under Additional document\(s\) required for representatives.

When applying in-person, your original documents will be returned to you immediately.

Translation requirements:

Note: You must provide original documents; photocopies are not accepted.

If you submit a document that is not in English or French, you must also submit:

- an English or French translation of the document; and
- an attestation or affidavit written and signed by the translator.

If a certified translator has translated the document, you must submit an attestation. The attestation is a document stating that the translation is a full and accurate version of the original text. (A certified translator is a member of a provincial or territorial organization of translators and interpreters.)

If a certified translator has not translated the document, you must submit an affidavit. The affidavit is a document stating that the translation is a full and accurate version of the original text. The translator must sign the affidavit before a commissioner for oaths or a commissioner for taking affidavits. (A commissioner for oaths or a commissioner for taking affidavits is appointed by a province or territory.)

Note: Translations by family members are not acceptable. (A family member is defined as being a parent, guardian, sibling, spouse, grandparent, child, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew or first cousin.)

Refer to the list below to determine the identity documents that you will need to apply.

Primary identity documents

Canadian citizens must submit one of the following original and valid documents:

- Certificate of birth or birth certificate issued by the vital statistics agency in the province or territory where you were born (Note: Quebec proof-of-birth documents issued prior to 1994 are not accepted);
- Certificate of Canadian Citizenship issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC);
or
- Certificate of Registration of Birth Abroad issued by IRCC.

If you are a registered Indian and you want to register your status in your SIN record, you must provide the two following documents:

- your Birth Certificate (see section on Canadian citizens);
- Certificate of Indian Status issued by Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada (INAC)

Permanent Residents of Canada need to provide one of the following original documents:

- Permanent Resident Card issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship (IRCC);
- Confirmation of Permanent Residence issued by IRCC, accompanied by either a travel document such as a foreign passport, or an alternate photo identification issued by a provincial/territorial authority such as a driver's license.

Note: The Confirmation of Permanent Residence is acceptable if used within one year of the date you became a permanent resident. The Permanent resident card is required after this period;

- Record of Landing issued by IRCC before June 28, 2002;
- Verification of Landing issued by IRCC (only acceptable to amend a SIN record or to obtain confirmation of an existing SIN); or
- Status Verification OR Verification of Status issued by IRCC (only acceptable to amend a SIN record or to obtain confirmation of an existing SIN).

Temporary Residents of Canada need to provide one of the following original documents:

- Work permit issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship (IRCC);
- Study permit issued by IRCC, indicating that you are authorized to work in Canada.
 - a study permit that indicates the permit holder “may accept employment” or “may work” in Canada; or

If you do not meet this requirement, you may contact IRCC to verify if you are eligible to apply for an amended study permit.

- Visitor record issued by IRCC, indicating you are authorized to work in Canada; or
- Diplomatic identity card and note of permission of employment issued by Global Affairs Canada.

Other - Individuals residing outside Canada who are not Canadian citizens or Registered Indians with no legal status in Canada and are eligible to receive a Canadian government benefit or pension need to provide both of the following original documents:

- Birth Certificate issued by a state authority from your country of birth (if not in English or French, refer to translation requirements in Step 1) and
- Letter confirming eligibility for pension or benefits from Canada Pension Plan (CPP), Old Age Security (OAS) or Régie des rentes du Québec (RRQ).

Supporting documents

You must also provide an original supporting document if the name on any document provided is different from the name on the SIN application. You will need to provide one of the following supporting documents, if required:

- Certificate of marriage or a similarly titled document, depending on the issuing authority to support your family name after marriage. Note: This does not apply to Quebec residents who were married after April 1, 1981, regardless of where they were married;
 - Legal Change of Name Certificate or Court Order document issued in accordance with provincial/territorial change of name act in Canada or similar legislation;
 - Adoption order certified by a provincial/territorial court for adoptions in Canada only;
 - Notarial Adoption Certificate issued by the country of origin of the child adopted abroad;
 - Request to Amend Record of Landing issued by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC);
- or
- Divorce Decree or a similarly titled document issued in accordance with a provincial/territorial court in Canada for the dissolution of marriage. Note: Documents issued by a foreign country are not acceptable.

Secondary documents

When applying in-person, you must also provide an original and valid secondary document that is valid and issued by a government (federal or provincial). The document must contain your legal name (surname and given name) as well as your date of birth. Examples of acceptable secondary documents include:

- a passport (Canadian or foreign)
- a provincial or territorial ID card or driver's license
- any other government-issued ID

Note: The secondary document requirement does not apply to applicants below the age of majority in their province or territory of residence or applicants applying by mail. ecree or a similarly titled document issued in accordance with a provincial/territorial court in Canada for the dissolution of marriage. Note: Documents issued by a foreign country are not acceptable.

Additional documents required for representatives

Parent or legal guardian applying on behalf of a minor child

If you are a parent or a legal guardian applying on behalf of a minor child (i.e. child under the age of majority in their province or territory of residence), you must provide:

- The child's original and valid primary identity document as listed in Step 1 above;
- The child's original document (only applicable if the name on any document provided is different from the name on the SIN application);
- Your own original and valid primary proof-of-identity document as listed in Step 1 above;
- Your own original and valid secondary proof of identity document, if applying in person;
- Your own original and valid supporting document (only applicable if the name any document provided is different from the name on the SIN application).

If you are a legal guardian, you must also provide an original or certified copy of a document confirming legal guardianship issued by a provincial/territorial authority or similar legislation (in Quebec, a notarized Will is an acceptable document).

Legal representative applying on behalf of a minor child or an adult

If you are a court appointed lawyer or individual, or provincial/territorial employee applying on behalf of a minor child or an adult, you must provide:

- The child's or adult's original and valid primary identity document as listed in Step 1 above;
- The child's or adult's original supporting document (only applicable if the name on any document provided is different from the name on the SIN application);
- Your original and valid employee photo identification or government-issued identification, e.g. valid driver's license or passport;
- Your original and valid supporting document (only applicable if the name on any document provided is different from the name on the SIN application).
- An original or certified copy of a document confirming proof of legal representation issued by a provincial/territorial authority or similar legislation (in Quebec, a notarized Will is an acceptable document).

If you are a provincial/territorial employee, you must also provide an original Letter of Authorization issued on agency letterhead by the agency's Director/Administrator authorizing the legal representative to represent the agency to apply for a SIN.

REMEMBER: Photocopies are not accepted.

Step 2 - Complete the Application Form

This application form is not required if you apply in-person. However, a completed and signed application form is required if you are authorizing another individual to submit the application in-person on your behalf.

You must fully complete items 1 to 13, except gender information (in item 3), which is optional. The parent listed in item 4 must not be repeated in item 5. Parents can appear in any order. The application must be signed and dated using blue or black ink.

Note: Some provinces have passed legislation to recognize up to four parents on the registration of birth and you now have the option to have them all listed on your SIN record. In order to document the parent(s) that do not appear on the application form, attach a separate sheet of paper. On this paper, provide the given name(s) and the family name at birth of each parent and underline the family name at birth.

Signature on the application form:

The application form must be signed by the applicant, except in the following situations:

- Child under 12 years of age: the parent or legal guardian must sign the application form.
- Child over 12 years of age and under the age of majority in their province or territory of residence: the child, parent or legal guardian must sign the application form.
- Minor child or adult applicant who is represented by a legal guardian or legal representative: the provincial/territorial employee, the legal guardian, or the court appointed lawyer or individual must sign the application form.

If "X" is used as a signature, two witnesses must sign in the signature portion and indicate their relationship to you on the application form.

IMPORTANT: If you are a parent, legal guardian or legal representative, check the appropriate box on the form to indicate your relationship to the applicant and print and sign your name (Section 13).

Failure to fully complete, sign and date the application form will result in your application not being accepted.

Step 3 - Mail the application and original documents

Service Canada is not responsible for documents lost in the mail. You should protect your personal information by sending your documents in a secure manner (for example by using a postal service with tracking). Photocopies are not acceptable.

If your application and documents are in order, you will receive your SIN in the mail within 20 business days. Failure to provide the necessary documents will result in your application not being accepted.

Mail the completed, signed and dated application form and all required original identity documents to:

Service Canada
Social Insurance Registration Office
P.O. Box 7000
Bathurst, NB E2A 4T1
Canada

Note: An application that is incomplete, unsigned or missing original identity documents will not be accepted.
