

50th Anniversary Conference

Department of Linguistics

Memorial University of Newfoundland

November 29-30, 2018

	Thursday, November 29	Friday, November 30
10:00	Opening remarks & retrospective Marguerite MacKenzie	Keynote : 50 Ways to be a subject Will Oxford (University of Manitoba)
11:00	Object relative clause comprehension in L2 children with limited L2 exposure Maureen Scheidnes & Leslie Redmond	Size matters: How the emergence of the smallest units of phonology influence child speech productions Yvan Rose
11:30	TBA Paul De Decker	Re-deriving two verbal orders in Innu-aimun Phil Branigan
12:00	Cayuga verbo Carrie Dyck	Lunch break — Retirees' lunch
12:30	Lunch break
14:00	Keynote : TBA Catharyn Andersen (Special Advisor to the President on Aboriginal Affairs, Memorial University)	Keynote : Ethnolinguistic identity: tradition and transformation in First Nation language varieties Walt Wolfram (University of North Carolina)
15:00	Newfoundland and African American Englishes: linguistic cousins? Gerard Van Herk	Ilangani Inuttut, ilangani Inuktut Doug Wharram
15:30	Plural markers in Dene: is they optional? Nick Welch	Moraic reversal and realization: analysis of a Japanese reversing game Sara Mackenzie & Daiho Kitaoka
16:00	Keynote : Language Acquisition: what's production got to do with it? Paula Fikkert (Radboud University Nijmegen)	Screening : Talking Black in America Walt Wolfram
19:00	Conference banquet Cochrane Centre(42 Bannerman Street entrance)	