

Graduate Seminar

Speaker

Professors Deping Ye and Danny Dyer, Memorial University of Newfoundland

Thursday, February 14, 2019
1pm, HH-3017

Educational talks on graduate students' teaching and presentation

Abstract:

As a graduate student, it is extremely important to foster the ability of teaching and presentation. To this end, Professor Danny Dyer will talk about how to become a good mathematics instructor and how to teach effectively. Professor Deping Ye will discuss how to prepare slides for a successful presentation.

All graduate students all welcome to attend.
