

Graduate Seminar in Statistics

Dr. Yildiz Yilmaz
Memorial University

Monday, January 19, 2015
1:00pm - 2:00pm, HH-3017

Estimability of Measures of Association under Different Study Designs and Causality

Abstract:

We will consider some risk measures to measure the association between disease and exposure. We will check the estimability of the risk measures under exposure-based and disease-based study designs. Finally, we will discuss whether we can use these measures to address the causality of the relationship between disease and exposure.