Graduate Seminar

Yuri Bahturin, Memorial University

Thursday, October 3, 2013

HH-3017@ 1p.m.

The Burnside Problem

Abstract

I will tell the exciting story of a one century development around famous Group Theory problem by W. Burnside, who asked more than a century ago the following question. If G is a finitely generated, periodic group, then is G necessarily finite?