

Dr. Harold Crewe and Dr. Peter Cleary Memorial Award Application Form

Background Information

This Award was established by generous donations in memory of Dr. Harold Crewe and Dr. Peter Cleary from their family, friends and physician colleagues. Drs. Crewe and Cleary were committed to their practice and served the Clarenville, Bonavista and Arnold's Cove areas through their work in their family medicine clinics and at the Dr. G. B. Cross Memorial Hospital. Valued at a portion of the income on the endowment, it will be awarded annually to a fourth-year learner in the Doctor of Medicine undergraduate degree program at Memorial University of Newfoundland who has or will complete a portion of their training in any rural community in the province of Newfoundland and Labrador. Preference will be given to a learner who has or will complete a portion of their training in Clarenville or surrounding areas.

Requirements

Applicants must:

1. Be a student in their 4th year of the Undergraduate Medical Education Program.
