

SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES (SGS) – WINTER 2025 SCHOLARSHIPS

Dr. Miriam Yu Graduate Scholarship

Deadline: February 3, 2025 (apply to gradawards@mun.ca)

Eligibility: This scholarship was established by a generous donation from the Estate of Dr. Miriam Yu (1928-2023). Dr. Yu was a professor of Educational Psychology at Memorial University of Newfoundland for nearly twenty years. In retirement, she settled in Vancouver where she founded the Sage Elder College to promote life-long learning and social interaction and was its president. She was a dedicated community volunteer who was passionate about multiculturalism and support for seniors and was also an artist whose paintings were exhibited in Hong Kong, the UK and Canada. This scholarship honours her legacy in education and public service.

Valued at a portion of the endowment, one or more scholarships of equal value, up to a maximum of one year's tuition, will be awarded to full-time graduate students in the first year of study in any graduate program with any campus of Memorial University. This scholarship is renewable for one year (two years in total) as long as the recipients maintain scholarship standing and if their program is longer than one year. Preference will be given to students with financial need. The recipients must meet the minimum academic requirements for scholarship standing as defined by Memorial University of Newfoundland.

Application Process: The scholarship application consists of a single PDF in the following order:

- a cover letter,
- a one- to two-page research statement,
- a CV,
- two letters of reference, and
- a current transcript

Applications can be submitted to the School of Graduate Studies no later than February 3rd, 2025, by email at: gradawards@mun.ca.
