1795 28 feb farle journal news jas BISCAY of exon on sunday last wrecked nr torabbey seat of geo cary esq whose humane treatment of the surviving part of the crew was such as to call forth the warmest thanks of the many gentlemen who were spectators of the dreadful scene. Capt Burgess attempted on sunday night to make exmouth bar but in vain and was obliged to bear away for torbay where about two o'clock sunday morning he broke from his anchors and struck on the rock by which the vessel was dashed to pieces and the very valuable cargo consisting of groceries etc destined (for exon) and neighbourhood almost totally lost. The capt who had a considerable sum in cash with him was lost with his mate and boy; four men we apprehend are saved. tis supposed very little of the cargo is insured
