FOLKLORE AND LANGUAGE ARCHIVE

“MUNFLA houses a rich, rare and eclectic collection and is staffed by knowledgeable, supportive and enthusiastic personnel. It is a treasure trove of culture, the precious ‘attic trunk’ of the province.”

Ursula A. Kelly, PhD
Professor, Faculty of Education
Memorial University of Newfoundland

WHAT IS THE FOLKLORE AND LANGUAGE ARCHIVE (MUNFLA)?

MUNFLA is recognized as Canada's foremost repository for recorded and collected items of Newfoundland and Labrador folklore.

Established in 1968, it is one of the oldest archives at Memorial University.

SPECIAL THANKS to the many graduate and undergraduate student assistants who have contributed significantly to the work accomplished at MUNFLA over the years through various employment programs sponsored by Memorial University.
