

Faculty of Nursing
Research Café Show & Tell Poster Display
Room 3454
November 13, 2019
Presentation Agenda

1200-1215 April Pike

"I Heard What You Said": Living with Hearing Loss

1215-1230 Sandra MacDonald

Nursing Students' Perspectives on Incivility in the Clinical Practice Learning Environment: Research in Progress

1230-1245 Caroline Porr

Nursing Research Heightens Awareness of the Critical Role of the Public Health Nurse in Perinatal Mental Health

1245-1300 Karen Parsons

Older Nurses' Experiences of Providing Direct Care in Hospital Nursing Units: A Qualitative Systematic Review

1300-1315 Renee Crossman

Trying to 'Get' it: Exploring Diabetes Practices

1315-1330 Coffee Break

1330 -1345 Robert Meadus

Men in Nursing Career Choice and Barriers: Strategies to Improve Recruitment: A Descriptive Study

1345-1400 Nicole Snow

Mental Health of Individuals and Families Separated by Work in Newfoundland and Labrador-A Narrative Inquiry Study

1400-1415 Richard Bouté

Understanding Collaborative Primary Care Practice that Involves Family Practice Nurses in Newfoundland & Labrador

1430-1445 Sandra Small

Using JBI Methodology to Optimize the Value and Address the Drawbacks of Systematic Reviews: A Reflection on Practical Experience

1445-1500 Kimberly Jarvis

Restoring Dignity for Women who Experience Obstetric Fistula Repair in Northern Ghana through Policy Development.