The Department of Political Science invites applications for per course appointments for the following Political Science courses to be taught in the Winter semester of 2020.

The Per Course Instructor is required to prepare and deliver the course content in accordance with the University Senate approved calendar descriptions and the Department of Political Science guidelines.

3110 (001) Political Theory from Tocqueville to Present (2:00 to 3:15 p.m. Tuesdays/Thursdays)

Political Theory from Tocqueville to Present examines selected political theory from Tocqueville to the present. The theme of the course is the crisis in liberal democratic theory.

Required qualifications:
A Masters’ level qualification in Political Science and previous relevant teaching experience at the University level in Political Science are required. A PhD in a relevant field is preferred.

The rate of pay for all positions is according to the LUMUN Collective Agreement.

Memorial University of Newfoundland is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: October 4, 2019
Applicants should send a cover letter outlining their qualifications, a Curriculum Vitae and the names and addresses of three references who can be contacted. Applications can be submitted to:

Dr. Russell Williams
Head, Department of Political Science
Memorial University
St. John’s, NL  A1B 3X9

Email: polisci@mun.ca