Applications are invited from qualified individuals who are interested in being considered for a position as a per course instructor teaching Psychology 7010 Practicum in Ethics and Relationship Skills in Fall semester 2018 on the St. John's campus. The course schedule will be determined by the Psy.D. Program Director in consultation with the instructor. The Calendar description is:

7010 Practicum in Ethics and Relationship Skills provides an introduction to clinical practice. Under supervision, students learn skills in building relationships with clients, conducting and writing up initial interviews, and applying ethical principles. The practicum requires that students spend 4 hours per week for 12 weeks working under supervision in the Psychology Department clinic and attend a weekly seminar.

Required qualifications: (1) A demonstrated knowledge of the specific topics noted in the course description; (2) a doctorate in clinical psychology or a masters in clinical psychology with at least 4 years of teaching experience in a professional training program in either clinical psychology or psychiatry; and (3) appropriate provincial registration/licensure.

Applicants should send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, evidence of effective teaching, and the names of three references in electronic form to: psychsecretary@mun.ca

If electronic submission is not possible, applicants may send the information to:

Head, Department of Psychology
Memorial University of Newfoundland
St. John's, NL
